Ex-darts champ drove wife 'to brink'

AN ex-darts champ has been banned from contacting his estranged wife after a court heard he drove her to the brink of suicide by repeatedly harassing her.

Chris Mason, of Hednesford, known as 'Mase the Ace', admitted breaching a non-molestation order which stopped him from contacting Lorna, his wife of 14 years.

At Wolverhampton magistrates court on Tuesday, Mason, aged 44, of Sandpiper Close, admitted the breach and a restraining order was imposed banning him from having any contact with 39-year-old Lorna – unless through his solicitors – until April 2016.

Nervous

Prosecutor Jayne Youngs said: "She has had a nervous breakdown and is on depression medication."

Richard Quinn, defending, said: "He has complied in the past and has been sober for six months. He is turning his life around."

Mason was also ordered to pay £85 costs, a £60 victim surcharge and must carry out 50 hours of unpaid work.

Mason, who won the Scottish Open in 1995, Irish Masters in 2000 and English Open in 2001, retired in 2011 and now regularly appears as a TV pundit.

Blaze starts at bungalow

A FAMILY and a 13-month-old baby suffered smoke inhalation after a fire broke out in a bungalow in Heath Hayes.

A man and woman along with an elderly man – believed to be child's grandfather – all escaped from the home in Cromwell Road and were all taken to hospital.

Fire crews from Cannock and Chase Terrace spent nearly three hours at the home tackling the blaze, which started in a bedroom at around 10.10pm on Tuesday.

Stephen's fundraising target pushed to £1m

Fundraiser Stephen Sutton

A BURNWOOD teenager with terminal cancer has set a new £1 million fundraising goal.

Stephen Sutton, aged 19, who set himself a bucket list of challenges, had initially set out to raise £10,000 for the Teenage Cancer Trust. The total now stands at more than £572,000, so Stephen is going all out to help boost that figure to £1m.

Stephen embarked on the fundraising drive and his list of challenges after he received his diagnosis in 2012. He has now achieved all but 11 things on his wish list, including meeting comedian Jimmy Carr.

He has a tattoo of a pair of scissors – a nod to the operations he has had, he has gone crowd-surfing in a rubber dinghy and has watched a football match at Wembley where he met Arsenal star Theo Walcott.

Stephen has lost the use of one leg due to his illness, but he is determined to complete his list, including the next challenge of getting into the Guinness Book of Records in a group tandem sky-dive planned for July.

The challenge has also given him opportunities to address business and charity seminars where he has encouraged delegates to use their time on earth wisely.

Stephen, a former Chase Terrace Technology College pupil, said: "I don't regret anything I did, I only regret the things I didn't do."

Meanwhile, a long-standing friend of Stephen's will raise money for the Teenage Cancer Trust on Sunday when he runs the London Marathon.

Chris Bullock, of Chase Terrace Technology College, has been pals with Stephen since the days of Highfields Primary School.

"Stephen is my motivation," said Chris. "He inspires everyone he meets."

Hope on youth cuts as plans called in CAMPAIGNERS have fresh hope over proposed youth facility cuts as plans could go back before council bosses for scrutiny.

All 34 council-run youth clubs across the county could shut unless volunteers take over the running of the services.

Staffordshire County Council – which is trying to save £102 million over five years – said the service cost too much money to run. The authority's cabinet passed the plans last month – but they have been called in for scrutiny next week after 11 councillors raised concerns.

Changes

The corporate review committee can either approve the cuts, send them back to the cabinet for changes to be made, or put the plans before full council.

Among those objecting are Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson, who says the 'decimation' of the service could lead to a rise in anti-social behaviour.

He said: "Without underestimating the huge value and contribution of volunteers, youth work is now a largely graduate profession, and the quality of the provision and thus positive outcomes for our young people is in doubt if the current expertise is lost."

Court date on assault charge

A MAN alleged to have committed a serious assault has been bailed to appear at Stafford crown court.

Jonathan Kidd, aged 46, of Birch Avenue, Cannock, went before magistrates on Monday and will appear on July 14 for a plea and case management meeting.

He is charged with maliciously wounding Mark Jones, causing him grievous bodily harm, in a fight outside South Staffordshire College Cannock campus, The Green, on March 16.

CHANGES MADE TO HS2 PAYOUTS

HIGH speed rail bosses HS2 have announced a raft of changes to the compensation package available to homeowners who live near the line.

The changes are being made after a public consultation was held into phase one of the £50billion scheme between London and Birmingham.

The changes, announced yesterday (Wednesday) include an Express Purchase scheme aimed at people living within 60 metres of the track. The Government will buy properties at the full unblighted market value, plus 10 per cent on top of that up to £47,000.

A rent-back option has also been introduced so people who want to sell their properties can carry on living where they are.

The government is introducing a Homeowner Payment scheme which would entitle owners to a cash payment if they live between 120 metres and 300 metres from the line in rural areas. Payments will be between £7,500 to £22,500.

Unblighted

Following further consultation, the government also intends to introduce a Need to Sell scheme and consider applications to buy properties at full unblighted market value from owner-occupiers who have a compelling need to sell but who are unable to do so because of plans to build HS2.

Transport Secretary Patrick McLoughlin, a former Cannock miner, said: "I completely understand the concerns and anxieties of those living near the line and it is only right that those people are properly looked after."

"I believe this package of compensation and assistance will enable us to help people more. But I am asking for further views on some aspects before we finalise the plans."

HS2 Ltd will appoint an independent Residents' Commissioner to hold the company to account in its handling of applications and to ensure it meets the standards.

By Laura Blyth

A consultation on some of the changes will be launched by HS2 Ltd later this year. Opposition group HS2 Action Alliance (HS2AA) said nearly 240,000 homes within one kilometre of the proposed line were impacted by HS2 and are likely to suffer losses and that 'almost all are ineligible for compensation under the current policy'.

Meanwhile, the Staffordshire Wildlife Trust is appealing for the public's help and money as it steps up the fight against HS2.

Bosses says the trust needs to raise at least £17,500 to cover the extra cost it will incur battling the project. The trust claims HS2 will do 'irreparable damage' to a number of Staffordshire's precious wild spaces.

Donations can be made at www.staffs-wildlife.org.uk/hs2 or on 01889 880100. Cheques made payable to Staffordshire Wildlife Trust can be sent to the appeal at The Wolseley Centre, ST17 0WT.

Brownies troop off on hunt

Brownies on a walking treasure hunt around Longdon

MORE than 100 children gathered to mark the centenary of the Brownies movement.

Longdon village played host to nine units that make up the Rugeley Division.

The event featured a treasure hunt and a sleepover at the village hall and at St James CE School.

They were also treated to a display by Bob Parks, of Armitage Bird of Prey Centre, who brought along a kestrel, barn and eagle owls.

The weekend was organised by Monique Worth, also known as Kookaburra Owl, of 1st Longdon Brownies.

Meanwhile, Beavers past and present will meet for a silver jubilee celebration this weekend.

The 1st Brereton Beavers is marking 25 years with a gathering at the Pear Tree Working men's Club in Hardie Avenue, Rugeley, from 7.30pm on Saturday (April 12). There will also be a display of old photos.

Acupuncture clinic launches in town

A NEW acupuncture clinic has launched in Cannock.

Licensed acupuncturist Jemma Atherden, a member of the British Acupuncture Council, is trained in both the traditional Chinese medicine and five element methods, and has set up the clinic at Soul Care Aesthetics in Newhall Street alongside her established Stafford practice.

Jemma said: "I've been practising acupuncture for over eight years and set up my clinic in Stafford back in 2012.

"The beauty of acupuncture is that it can be used to treat such a huge range of everyday problems – everything from migraines and headaches through to infertility, irregular periods, anxiety, depression, skin conditions, digestive problems, fatigue and pre and post-natal conditions. I've even helped ladies in late pregnancy to turn their breech babies through non-invasive, gentle treatment."

Jemma will be offering consultations and treatments by appointment only – for a free, no-obligation chat to discuss how acupuncture could help provide simple, effective relief from your ongoing condition call 0781 255 5331 or email jemma_atherden@yahoo.co.uk.

Treatment trial for breathing problems

NHS bosses say patients with breathing difficulties will find it easier to get treatment as part of a new trial that will see consultants carry out appointments at their homes.

The Cannock Chase and Stafford & Surrounds Clinical Commissioning Groups are launching a trial service that will see a hospital-based consultant move their outpatient clinics into the community alongside specialist respiratory nurses.

The new community service will help those with Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease – the symptoms of which can include severe breathlessness, persistent coughs and episodes of frequent chest infections. It is estimated that around three million people suffer from COPD across the UK.

Dr Mo Huda, Rugeley GP and Clinical Lead for Cannock Chase CCG said: "When patients are having breathing problems related to their COPD they want to see a specialist nurse or consultant at a time that is best for them rather than be waiting for a hospital appointment that will not be at the time when patients most need it.

Stress

"We believe that, if practical, there are considerable advantages for community respiratory nurses having access to a consultant to help with complex patients with COPD.

"By better management of complex patients we can reduce risk factors associated with patients needing to have emergency care which lead to considerably less stress and inconvenience for patients and their families or carers."

Dr David Cook, consultant in respiratory medicine, said: "This new service will mean patients being able to be seen in clinics nearer to their homes and with less waiting times."

Royal encounter for life-saver

Sophie, Countess of Wessex greets Volunteer of the Year Carol Trigg

A BURNTWOOD life-saver met the Countess of Wessex when she was named St John Ambulance Volunteer of the Year.

Carol Trigg was one of the award winners at the charity's Everyday Heroes ceremony.

The 56-year-old beat seven other regional finalists from across the country to scoop the title. She was presented with her award in front of a crowd of more than 350 people at the Lancaster London hotel, including TV presenter Tess Daly.

Despite suffering a serious loss of vision in early 2012, which means she now requires the assistance of a guide dog, Flora, Carol has continued to ensure that more people know first aid. She first joined St John Ambulance 45 years ago.

She is now area training specialist and is chairman of the local Fellowship branch.

Presenting the awards were broadcaster Matthew Wright whose life was saved when he choked in a restaurant, and former footballer Fabrice Muamba who collapsed in cardiac arrest for over 78 minutes.

Not just onesie attempt at record

ONESIE wearers can help to set a world record – and gain cut-price admission to a theme park to boot.

Drayton Manor Park, near Tamworth, is attempting a double-whammy in just one day this Saturday (April 12). Last year, the theme park entered the Guinness World Records for the most number of people wearing onesies gathered in any one place. However, that total of 700 has since been beaten, so now Drayton Manor is eager to get the record back.

It is also aiming for a second world record bid, when at 10.30am it attempts the longest scream by a crowd of people. According to Guinness World Records, the existing record was set in November 2013 in California, a minimum of 80 decibels for a period of two minutes and five seconds.

The park has also reduced its entry price to just £5 for the day if they arrive before 10am.

Colin Bryan, CEO and Group Managing Director, said: "We've never dropped our prices this low but we really want to give something back to our visitors and encourage them to come along on the day and make history with us."

Art group's work on show

VISITORS to Cannock Library can catch a glimpse of work by the Heath Hayes Art Group this month.

The artwork is on show for the whole month in the group's annual exhibition. It can be viewed during normal opening hours at the Manor Avenue site.

Work includes a mixture of subjects, painting styles and media from water colour, oil, pastel and acrylic.

The group has been operating for more than 20 years and meets on Monday nights from 7-9 at Heath Hayes Library. It has a 25-strong membership.

Wildlife talk

THE Cannock Group of the Staffordshire Wildlife Trust welcomes Tim Colshaw for a talk on 'Picos de Europa, Europe's richest wildlife area?' at 7.30pm on Wednesday, April 16 at St Luke's Church Centre. Entry is £1.50 with refreshments.

Songbirds in date on breakfast show

A FEMALE singing group took part in Lichfield's Got Talent – and has now landed a slot on radio.

Ten of Songbirds in Harmony's 31-strong group will perform and chat on the Touch FM breakfast show tomorrow (Friday).

On May 10, they perform at Pye Green Community Centre, Greenheath Road, from 7.30pm.

Tickets are £8.50, with drinks and nibbles, and a raffle will add to the £620 raised for Anawim at the last concert in Bridgtown.

Neighbourhood area is proposed

VILLAGERS can have a say on plans for Hammerwich to become a neighbourhood area.

The parish council has made its application to Lichfield District along with 11 other village authorities.

If granted, the parish council can shape how the community will look in the future. The district council is asking for feedback their before April 30.

Visit www.lichfielddc.gov.uk/neighbourhood-plans or call 01543 308196.

A programme of Easter music

MIXED voice choir Bel Canto performs a programme of Easter music in Rugeley next week.

'It Took A Miracle' is at St Paul's Methodist/United Reformed Church, Lichfield Street, on Wednesday, April 16, from 7.30pm, accompanied by Robin Roberts, conducted by Pauline Gooch and narrated by Peter Martin.

A retiring collection will be held for cancer charities.

Ramblers head off at the double

IT is a double header for the Chase & District Ramblers this weekend. They head off on an easy five-mile ramble across the Chase from Castle Ring on Saturday (April 12), departing from Castle Ring car park at 10am.

The following day, they will leave at 9am at Hednesford rail station, for a 10-mile trek at Tissington.

Make a splash

SWIM fit sessions are being held at Penkridge Leisure Centre during adult swims on a Tuesday and Thursdays. They take place from 7-9pm at no extra cost. Call 01785 714152 for more details.

Cash joy as family centre is given £35k

A FAMILY centre is celebrating after receiving a cash injection of £35,000.

West Chadsmore Family Centre in Princess Street received donations from Wolves Aid and Family Focus which supports child development.

The centre has been running for almost 18 years and offers activities to families as well as training courses and fun sessions for anyone who needs extra support.

Carers work with children from birth to school age and hold play and stay sessions as well as rhyme time classes. There is also an adult learning programme and a creche.

Family Focus donated £20,000 to the centre while Wolves Aid granted £15,000.

Centre manager Heather Preece said: "We have had to go through the tendering process to get money to sustain our services and we are constantly applying for grants so this money has helped to fill the gaps in our funding and has been very gratefully received."

The money will also help the centre with its new preschool which operates from 9am, until 12pm Monday to Friday for children aged two to five. For more information call 01543 571698.

Organist Nix in show date

A POPULAR name in the keyboard and organ world, Andrew Nix, will be the guest at Burntwood Music For All tonight (Thursday).

The concert takes place at the Memorial Hall in Rugeley Road, from 7.30pm.

Hailing from Selby in north Yorkshire, Nix is a former Butlin's Musical Director, whose activities have included playing concerts on famous pipe organs such as at the Civic Hall in Wolverhampton and Blackpool Tower Ballroom.

Tickets are £6 on the door. Call CMP Promotions 01530 274270.

Gym prize winner

A CHRONICLE reader has won a year's free membership to PureGym in Hednesford. Mrs Val Burden, of Newhall Street, Cannock, was the lucky winner in the March 27 edition competition. She correctly answered March 13 as the date the gym was opened.

Dogs facing ban from parks in district

DOGS could be banned from sections of parks in Staffordshire after a series of complaints were made about out of control pets.

Seventeen beauty spots could see dog control orders introduced in them later this year. It comes after a number of visitors told Lichfield District Council their fears about pet owners not keeping their animals under proper control in parks.

A survey has been launched by the council asking for public opinion on the matter and it will run until May 9. The areas affected include Chasewater Country Park, Burntwood Park and Chase Terrace Park.

Leisure chief Councillor Andy Smith said: "We know the vast majority of dog owners keep their dogs under control when visiting our parks."

"However, we're considering this action because some concerns have been raised over out of control dogs in certain parks."

Once the survey has closed and the results looked at by the council, bosses will then decide whether to introduce dog control orders in all of its parks or not. It could mean dogs are prevented from going into certain areas, such as sports pitches or playgrounds where children may be playing, or kept on leads by their owners at all times.

Chase Terrace councillor John Walker said: "I'm in favour of this move. I think in areas where there are lots of people or children dogs do need to be banned or kept on a lead."

Fellow Chase Terrace councillor Susan Woodward added: "I see dog owners using the park and keeping their dogs on a lead. But all it takes is for one incident where a child or adult gets injured."

Dog control orders provide clear rules expected of dog owners. They can compel owners to keep their dogs on a lead, they can ban dogs from certain areas and they can limit the number of dogs controlled by one person.

If the rules are not followed, councils can fine penalty notices and, if it is not paid, it can lead to court action.

My son was fitted up, claims Anslow's father

THE father of Black Country criminal John Anslow has defended his son, saying he had been 'victimised' by the police.

John Anslow senior said his son was angry at his 22-year sentence for conspiring to supply cocaine and cannabis. He claimed he made his money as a professional gambler.

Anslow was found not guilty of the murder of Burnt-wood father-of-two Richard Deakin. After the verdict reporting restrictions were lifted on Anslow's previous convictions. He was also given seven years for escaping from a prison van.

He went on the run to Cyprus and was sentenced for the drugs offences in his absence in 2012.

Reputation

Now his father, who lives in London, has hit out at police, saying: "He's been victimised. They've incorrectly painted my son as the head of this drugs organisation."

"They've got nobody else to pin it on and our family's got a bad reputation so they've fitted him up."

"It wasn't anything like as large-scale as they've made out and they sentenced him when he was in Cyprus so he couldn't even defend himself. It's barbaric."

As details of 33-year-old Tipton man's lavish lifestyle came to light, it was revealed he regularly spent thousands of pounds on holidays, owned a £90,000 Porsche Panamera and

My son was fitted splashed £36,000 on sponsoring Wolves players and matches.

Mr Anslow Snr said his son's riches came from professional gambling.

"He was a professional gambler and made all his money on the track and in the casino. I've spoken to him and he knew he'd be found not guilty for the murder (of Mr Deakin)."

"He's angry at his drugs sentence and he's on restricted visits and phone calls. It's a huge injustice."

West Midlands Police said they were satisfied the judicial process had been 'fair and proper'.

Superintendent Jo Chilton said Anslow could offer 'no legitimate explanation' for his considerable wealth.

"A compelling case was presented to the Crown Prosecution Service and a jury in court subsequently convicted him of conspiring to supply heroin and crack cocaine."

"The court also deemed he was a central player in a nationwide drug network."

Gas leak after car crash

BUSINESSES were evacuated and roads closed when a car smashed into a gas sub-station, sparking a 'major leak'.

The crash, involving a red BMW three series, happened near Sainsbury's petrol station at Orbital Retail Centre at around 7.10pm on Sunday. Staff were evacuated and a 300-metre exclusion zone put in place.

Gas engineers were called. A man from Brownhills was arrested on suspicion of failing to stop.

Andy Aldred, from DADs in the van which had its sat-nav stolen

Charity van has sat-nav stolen

THIEVES targeted a charity for disabled children by stealing a sat-nav from a van used by the group.

The £350 equipment is used to direct volunteers from Cannock-based Dads and Disabilities Support group to locations to collect donated goods which can be sold to raise money for the charity.

The Garmin Truckers sat-nav was stolen from the Transit van as it was parked in Wimblebury between 9pm on Friday and 9am on Saturday, March 29.

The group has been donated another sat-nav but are appealing for the return of the stolen equipment. Anyone with information can call 01543 571011 or contact the group through Facebook.

PR manager Kate Griffin said: "It was stolen from the van which was parked outside the director's."

"We are very disappointed, it is very sad anyone would steal from a charity."

On Sunday (April 13) the charity launches its new outreach centre at Birches Business Park in Bridgtown, which will complement its sales unit on the same site. There will be children's activities from 11am.

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

SO farewell, the Competition Commission, scrapped this week. Why was there only one?

AS the world digests the massive UN report on climate change, does any part of it mention the thousands of British pensioners and drivers who did not die this winter thanks to the unusually mild conditions? Or does only bad news count?

UKIP leader Nigel Farage took some flak for saying the European Union has "blood on its hands" for encouraging rebellion in Ukraine, Syria and Libya. Maybe he's wrong but, as I suggested some days ago, it would be good to know exactly what the EU was discussing with the rebels in Kiev before Ukraine's president fled. And here's why. One hundred years ago, as Britain declared war on Germany, many Brits were surprised that their government chose to get involved. Then it was revealed that Britain had a secret agreement with France. If Germany attacked France, the Royal Navy would defend the ports of northern France. We don't want another surprise like that, do we, Mr Cameron?

OUR cat became suddenly nervous about leaving the house at night. Then we found the piles of earth and poo in the yard where the badgers had been digging. Cats, like any other creatures with brains, give badgers a wide berth. Which is why I'm not entirely convinced by the theory that TB can pass from badgers to humans through bite wounds on domestic cats. If a badger manages to bite a cat, it would surely kill it.

I WONDER how many dim hacks dashed off outraged, thundering columns about the new Scottish coin bearing the head of a haughty-looking Alex Salmond, before realising it was all an April Fool's gag. Join the club.

SO what is a reasonable length of time to hold an innocent person behind bars? John Craven is a street preacher in Manchester. He was approached by two gay teenagers who asked his views on homosexuality. Mr Craven read them the bible verses from Revelation about sinners burning in a lake of fire and sulphur, but stressed that "God hates sin but He loves the sinner." The boys complained to a policeman that Mr Craven's words were "insulting" and had caused them "harassment and distress." The copper promptly arrested the preacher and took him to the cells where he was held for 19 hours. Mr Craven has now won £13,000 in compensation under the Human Rights Act. A police spokesman says: "We acknowledge that we did make mistakes and, in particular, kept the claimant in custody for too long." Too long? I repeat, what do the cops these days consider a reasonable length of time to bang up an English citizen whose only offence is to explain his religion to passers-by?

LATEST research suggests we need to eat at least seven portions of fruit or veg per day to live long and healthy lives. But you don't have to endure mountains of broccoli and kale. It is perfectly possible to convince yourself that anything resembling a vegetable or piece of fruit will do. Try these tasty alternatives: bitter lemon, chocolate orange, toffee apple, peardrops, fruit-salad chews, raspberry ripple and three cherries on the fruit machine.

THE House of Lords with 780 members is now the world's second biggest legislature, after China's Politburo. A new report suggests trimming the Lords by enforced retirement at 80 and axing the last of the hereditary peers. Here's another idea. Let's chuck out all those Lords who, when they were MPs, raged against the Lords, threatened to scrap it and swore they would never accept a peerage. How quickly their principles crumbled at the whiff of ermine.

Officers run to remember late Pc

POLICE officers and staff have completed a gruelling challenge raising money for a late Pc's memorial fund.

Team Staffs, made up of 20 members of the Staffordshire force – including three from Cannock – each ran 250 miles in 125 days in aid of the Pc Nicola Hughes Memorial Fund. It raises money for three causes, Victim Support, the Care of Police Survivors and the North West Police Benevolent Fund.

In all, 1,750 people from 43 police forces took part. The last five miles were completed following a remembrance service led by Rev Canon Andrew Stead, in the Lady Chapel in Lichfield Cathedral on March 28.

The fund was set up by Bryn Hughes in honour of his daughter and to raise money for good causes.

Nicola was one of two unarmed officers shot and killed in the line of duty responding to a report of a burglary in progress in 2012 in Manchester.

Mr Hughes supported the participants during the last leg of the challenge, which finished at the Police Mutual Assurance Society (PMAS) building in Queen Street, Lichfield.

Cannock's Team Staffs representatives were DC Clare Davenport, Pc Jamie Gotheridge and PCSO Laura Sandy.

Deputy Chief Constable Jane Sawyers said: "We are very proud of Team Staffs who have risen to the challenge in their own time to support such worthwhile causes and in remembrance to colleagues who were killed while carrying out their duties to keep communities safe."

Complaint made to police after hanging

THE family of a man who hanged himself after being visited by police and social services have complained to the Independent Police Complaints Commission.

Simon Richmond was found hanged on land off Flaxley Road near his home in Rugeley.

An inquest into the 48-year-old heard he had been visited by police officers at 1am on the day he died.

He was last seen by his parents at 1.30am going from the boot of his car and going into his house. A dog walker found Mr Richmond six hours later hanging from a tree in woodland.

DC Richard Williams told Cannock Coroner's Court a rope similar to the one used for the ligation was found in Mr Richmond's car boot.

Allegations

He added: "Simon had been made aware that there had been an allegation made about him. As a result of this our hypothesis is that he committed suicide."

"No suicide note or message has been found."

Mr Richmond's stepfather James Clarke asked the court about the allegations and whether they were being investigated.

He said: "Something happened that night for Simon to decide that it and we would like to find out why and how and what."

South Staffordshire Coroner Andrew Haigh concluded Mr Richmond died from hanging. After the hearing, Mr Clarke, 74, of Durham Drive, said: "Simon wasn't even told what the offence was."

By Charlotte Lilley

"We haven't been told who made the allegation. We have made a complaint to the police and social services and the IPCC."

The IPCC said the referral had been returned to Staffordshire Police for investigation.

Force spokesman Sarah Davison said: "Given the earlier police contact with Mr Richmond prior to his death, Staffordshire Police automatically referred the matter to the Independent Police Complaints Commission."

"The IPCC deemed it appropriate for the force to carry out an investigation. A complaint was also received from Mr Richmond's family and the investigation by the force's Performance Assessment Unit is ongoing."

"Officers are working closely with the county council who have also received a complaint."

People Power grants offer

COMMUNITY projects across the Chase and Burntwood areas have less than a week left to apply for a share of funding.

Police & Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis has made £500,000 available through the People Power Fund. Grants of between £100 and £3,000 will be allocated.

Applications for the first round of funding began last week and close on April 14. A second round of applications will be held in September.

More details, including application forms, are available at www.staffordshire-pcc.gov.uk/fund

Dressing up through decades

Max Macguire, aged nine, Lucy Fisher, 10, join classmates in fancy dress

YOUNGSTERS travelled back in time for an inspiring project at their school.

They dressed as famous faces from across the decades for the special initiative.

Glenthorne Primary School in Cheslyn Hay hosts a number of 'Inspiration Days' to get children hooked on their topic and to boost their learning.

To launch their Time Tunnel project the youngsters donned clothing from the 1950s through to the 90s.

Nicky Powles, Key Stage Two leader at the Glenthorne Drive school, co-ordinated the project for the Year Five and Six pupils.

She said: "Children participated in a range of exciting practical activities including learning dance routines from popular movies, ordering key events on a timeline, sorting fashions and popular culture into the correct era and producing 'pop art' in the style of Andy Warhol."

"The children had a fantastic day and thoroughly enjoyed learning about key events in modern history."

Villagers' help plea on Fun in the Park

COMMUNITY groups are being urged to get involved in an event aimed at bringing villagers closer together.

Fun in the Park has been organised by Huntingdon Village Champions and takes place on Wednesday, June 18 from 3-5pm at the village green in Colliers Way.

Group secretary Michelle Capewell said: "Last year's event was a huge success, so we are looking to local groups and charities to help make this year's event even bigger. Stalls are available on a first come first served basis, and we are booking them now."

"We are also looking for donations of items we can use as prizes for games, raffles etc, as well as monetary support."

Anyone willing to offer their support can attend a group meeting on the third Monday of each month at the community centre in Stafford Road. Due to the Easter holidays, the next meeting is on April 28 from 9.15 to 11.15am. Coffee mornings are also held every first Tuesday at the Sure Start Centre at Littleton Green School, from 9.15 to 11.00am.

More details can be obtained on 07903 865962 or at Mill3003@yahoo.co.uk

Pets advice for children

FREE pet workshops are on offer for Chase children during the Easter holidays.

Pets at Home is providing the activities at its Cannock and Colton stores. My Pet Pals Easter activity club will feature fun, interactive activities to educate children on how to care for small furry animals responsibly.

The store team will share their knowledge, while young pet lovers can also get up close to hamsters, gerbils and guinea pigs.

After completing the workshops, each child will receive a certificate, sticker, and a pet promise card.

Paper flowers

GAYNOR Woodward gives a demonstration called Paper Flowers to Penkridge Flower Club at the Peace Memorial Hall, Pinfold Lane, next week. It is on Monday, April 14 from 7.30pm. Entry is £5.50 with light refreshments served. There will also be a sales table.

Silent auction in aid of Macmillan

A SILENT auction is being held to raise money for Macmillan Cancer Support this weekend.

It has been organised by Penkridge parish council chairman Sandra Chambers and takes place at the Haling Dene Centre in Cannock Road, Penkridge, on Saturday (April 12) from 10.30-11.30am. Entry is free.

Mrs Chambers has been raising money for Macmillan Cancer Support since she was elected in May last year.

Boy, 15, admits starting pub fire

A 15-YEAR-old Cannock boy has admitted starting a fire at a derelict pub.

Crews were called to the former Globe Inn, East Cannock Road, Hednesford, on March 16.

The boy was interviewed under caution and 'fully admitted starting the fire and takes full responsibility for the damage caused', said Staffordshire Police spokesman Sarah Davison.

He has been referred to the youth offending team to decide on an appropriate course of action, she said.

Fraud charge on concert tickets

A MAN has appeared before Cannock magistrates charged with defrauding at least £19,000 from people who thought they were buying concert tickets.

Darryl Kenyon, 43, of Colliers Way, Huntington, is accused of defrauding eight victims between April 2011 and October 2012. No plea was indicated.

The case will go to Stafford crown court for plea and directions on July 7.

Mini-market and a Ploughman's

ST Luke's Mothers' Union meets this weekend, with a mini-market and a Ploughman's Lunch on the menu.

The mini-market runs from 10am at St Luke's Church, Cannock on Saturday, April 12. Lunches will be served from noon at a cost of £6, including a sweet and drink.

It will finish at 2pm. Call 07812 568423 for more.

Jumble fundraiser

A £500 donation to The Lichfield & Hatherton Canals Restoration Trust comes after a jumble sale in Penkridge in aid of the trust and the Lichfield branch of the Inland Waterways Association.

Cosford visit plane sailing for students

Public Services students during their visit to RAF Cosford

PUBLIC Services students from South Staffordshire College are making sure they equip themselves well for their chosen careers.

The Cannock campus students have undertaken a series of educational visits during the year to gain insights into successful careers.

As part of their course unit, a group of 20 Public Services students visited RAF Cosford to take part in a disaster management exercise, focused around a table top scenario involving a plane crash. The students took on the role of agencies such as the police, fire, ambulance, mountain rescue, flight operations, media and communications, personnel and contingency planning.

Tasks included dealing with the aftermath, finding out the location of the pilot and aircraft, ensuring medical supplies reached them, deploying the correct resources and evacuating the public.

The incident was constantly developing and students received different bulletins of information during the day. They had to radio through locations and information using the radio systems and called upon the skills they had learned involving teamwork, leadership and communication.

Squadron Leader George Paton, RAF outreach manager, said: "The exercise was designed to extract teamwork, leadership and above all, good communication skills at all levels."

Melanie Wilkes, teaching and learning innovator at South Staffordshire College, said: "The students really enjoyed the day and it was superbly organised by the RAF staff."

Agreement is reached in dispute over sports cash

A FIVE-year cash wrangle between supermarket Asda and Cannock Chase District Council has ended after a deal was reached over its ownership.

More than £500,000 was paid by Asda to the council as part of the conditions attached to building its store in Avon Road, Cannock.

It had been earmarked for an artificial sports pitch at the old Cannock Stadium. Since it was demolished in 2009, Asda has been trying to claim the money back.

The cash has sat untouched in the council's bank account for eight years, but following fresh talks, a deal has been reached.

The authority will retain the £527,500 for a sports and recreation hub at the old stadium site and return to Asda the interest accrued, about £120,000.

Council leader George Adamson said: "I am pleased this long-standing dispute has been resolved."

The cash will be used with other funds to establish new sports facilities.

Limit

The £527,500 sum was paid by Asda when the store was built in 2005. According to the conditions, the council should have spent the money by May 2010 - and while Asda was initially willing to extend the time limit, it then said the agreement was made void by the stadium's demolition.

As part of the latest deal, the money has to be spent within six years, and Asda given proper recognition as being the co-funder of any sports facilities provided.

Doug Wilson, Asda's head of UK property communications, said: "The funds will be invested into sports facilities that will benefit the local community."

"All of our customers love their sausage rolls and it's great to have such a premium product on the market."

Family pet mauled by neighbour's dog

Maria Douton and her husband Carl whose dog Harry was killed by the next door neighbour's

A HEARTBROKEN dog owner has told how her pet chihuahua was so badly mauled by a neighbour's Staffordshire Bull Terrier that it had to be put down.

Owner Maria Douton has agreed not to prosecute her Cannock neighbour Amy Marshall-Sherratt after she agreed to move the dog permanently to live with friends elsewhere.

Mrs Douton, aged 47, was at home in Mountain Pine Close when she heard her dog yelping in the garden. She looked over the fence to see 17-month-old chihuahua Harry in the jaws of the terrier, named Harley.

"I was so distraught I ran out the front screaming where two sets of neighbours came over to help me.

"The one neighbour managed to get Harry and take him to the vets where he had to be put to sleep."

She initially reported the incident to the police but later decided not to press charges. Following angry exchanges in the aftermath, both sides agreed to compromise to resolve the bad feeling.

Mrs Marshall-Sherratt said: "I feel for my neighbour. It was an unfortunate accident and we are extremely sorry it has happened."

Staffordshire Police spokesman Faye Casey said: "It is considered that reasonable steps had been taken by the owner of the dog to keep it under control within its own boundary.

"This was a very sad incident with a very unfortunate outcome."

Discover delights of great outdoors

CHILDREN can discover the delights of the natural world with Wildplay sessions at its Wolsley centre base near Rugeley over the Easter holidays.

A range of spring activities including pond dipping, mini-beast hunting and den building are on offer for eight-to-13-year-olds.

Lynsey Jenkins, the charity's environment education services officer, said: "The Wolsley Centre and its grounds provide the perfect setting for our fun nature-inspired activities these Easter holidays."

Scavenger

Sessions take place on April 14, 15, 22 and 25, from 10am-3pm at a cost of £9 per child. Parents can also book three or more sessions for only £7 each when booked and paid for at the same time.

Wildlife Watch days take place for four-to-seven-year-olds on April 16 and 23 from 2-4pm.

Activities include crafts, scavenger hunts and bird watching and costs £2.50 per child.

Children should wear outdoor clothes and bring a packed lunch.

Booking is essential on 01889 880100 or visit www.staffs-wildlife.org.uk/easter

Centre given grand boost

THE Great Wyrley Senior Citizens Centre has been boosted by a £1,000 donation from Tesco Community Awards. It will help to refurbish the Broadmeadow Lane building.

The centre has been in operation since 1959 and is used by the elderly for the Monday Club, special needs group Catherine Care, Wyrley Indoor Sports Club, South Staffordshire Exercise Class and as the home of the local history society.

Other groups meet on an ad hoc basis and the centre is available for meetings and children's parties.

Choral concert

A MIXED voice singing group hosts its annual concert at Chadsnoor Methodist Church next month.

The Summer Serenade by the Chase Choral Society, starts at 7.30pm on Saturday, May 10 at the Cannock Road church. Tickets are £5. Call 01543 577723.

IN MY VIEW

WITH
ANDREWS

ACHIM Steiner, the former executive director of the United Nations environment programme, once remarked that the way we treat the bees would 'in part define our collective future in the 21st century'.

It is fair to say PhD student Michael Smith seems to have taken these words to heart, with his in-depth study of honeybees.

However – and feel free to accuse this simple Black Countryman of trivialising the fine research being carried at New York's Cornell University if you believe that to be the case – but I cannot help wondering whether shoving a handful of bees down your underpants was really what Mr Steiner had in mind.

Young Mick, who one suspects probably has a rather strange social life, conducted what must surely be the most exhaustive research to date into the subject of where it hurts most to be stung.

And he wasn't just playing around at it either. He spent 38 days testing 25 different body locations, making sure he got stung at least five times a day.

"We speculated it probably really would hurt to get stung in the testicles," he said, adding, almost with an air of disappointment, "It didn't hurt as much as I expected it to."

That's the trouble with those honeybees, they have to be in the mood. If their heart's not in it, you're just wasting your time.

Michael revealed that getting himself stung in some of the more intimate places required quite a bit of ingenuity and imagination.

"Some locations required the use of a mirror and an erect posture during stinging, eg buttocks," he wrote in his thesis, which is probably something you do not see in too many university essays.

Michael has ruled out extending his work into the field of wasps, or stinging nettles, or jellyfish. Probably just as well, better learn to walk before you can run, and all that.

And the result of all this work is that a bee sting on the nose is much more painful than one around the scrotum. But I think there is also a much more important lesson we can all take from Mr Smith's research. If you are at the moment deliberating over which university course to take, my tip is to stick to economics.

HEADLINE in a tabloid newspaper: 'Tories in food fight.' And for a brief moment I actually thought we might have discovered some interesting politicians.

Surely, the idea of George Osborne showering Phil Hammond with bread rolls and William Hague tipping vol-au-vents over Jeremy Hunt's head would do wonders for the way we think of our honourable members.

Sadly, the story beneath failed to live up to the billing, a dull yarn about school dinners.

Stark reality of life in trenches

A museum is recreating life in the trenches for visitors. MARION BRENNAN takes a look at the experience

IT is the image that defines the Great War for many. The muddy, rat-ridden trenches that were under constant fire from the enemy.

Now the hellish subterranean existence of men on the Western Front in the First World War has been recreated at the Staffordshire Regimental Museum in Whittington.

The whizz and crack of sniper bullets and the distant rumble of big guns was replayed through a sound system as the first visitors toured the 500ft replica of a period trench system.

The Coltman Trench, first launched 12 years ago, has been redesigned to more realistically evoke life at the Front circa 1916.

Favourite

It is believed to be the most sophisticated trench reconstruction outside London's Imperial War Museum's model.

Veterans, special visitors and schoolchildren gathered at the site last week to celebrate the official re-opening.

The initiative has been entirely the work of dedicated museum volunteers who decided to update the communications trench, a favourite with visitors to the museum, to mark the centenary of the outbreak of the First World War.

Duck boards cover the ground and sandbags line the walls. There is a first aid station filled with original Great War artefacts and an officers' dugout, signposted The Ritz, where visitors can sit surrounded by bunk-beds, photographs and other personal items while watching a video of life in the trenches.

Original signage points the way to a tunnel that gives a feel for the conditions endured by the brave men of the North and South Staffordshire Regiment as they tunnelled underground to reach the enemy trenches.

Barry Gotheridge of the Regimental Association Hednesford branch in No Man's Land

The soldiers, many of them miners from Cannock, Rugeley and Hednesford, were renowned for their tunnelling prowess, being paid six times that of other soldiers for the risks they took.

A volunteer dressed in a turn-of-the-century nurse's uniform told students from King Edward VI School in Lichfield, who were on the first tour, that the soldiers sometimes inadvertently broke into enemy tunnels which led to hand-to-hand combat with fists and knives in pitch darkness.

Soldiers usually spent between six and 10 days at the Front at a time, always on the alert for deadly gas attacks in between mounting assaults on the German line.

Gas masks were not introduced until 1916, nor tin helmets, so for the first two years of the war, the troops' only protection against poisonous gas was to soak their soft caps and handkerchiefs in urine and hold them to their faces. Visitors are also shown funk holes, spaces dug into the sides of the trenches where two or three men could rest, and temporarily find respite from the mud.

People exit via a model of a bombed-out French village with crumbling walls and the forgotten detritus of a home, including a piano, crockery and shoes, showing through the wreckage.

The trench system is dedicated to the memory of Staffordshire-born William Coltman, the most decorated soldier of the 1914-18 conflict, who was awarded two Military Medals, two Distinguished Conduct Medals and the Victoria Cross, the highest possible commendation for gallantry.

As a Christian, he refused to take another's life. Instead he served as a stretcher bearer, showing extraordinary courage and saving many lives.

Modest

Eighteen members of the Coltman family across three generations attended the ceremony. Among them was William's grandson, 68-year-old John Coltman, who said he remembered his courageous relative as a modest man who never talked of his war experiences.

He said: "I don't know what my grandfather would have thought of this. He was a humble and unassuming man, only 5ft 4in tall, who returned to his gardening, working for the council, when he returned from the war."

"We learned about what he had done only after he had died because he never spoke of it himself. We are very proud of him."

"We honour his memory by preaching his message of peace and Christian love to children at Sunday Schools."

The ceremonial ribbon was cut by Staffordshire Deputy Lieutenant Graham Stow.

The museum is holding a series of commemorative events throughout the year, including a Trench Tour and Discovery Day on Easter Monday.

THROUGH THE YEARS

DAVID Cameron reckons the Black Country has 'every chance of doing well' in its bid for millions of pounds of funding. The wish list includes work by junction 10 of the M6, a revamp of the Grand Theatre and Civic Halls in Wolverhampton, a new railway station for the city and training centres in Halesowen, Dudley and Stourbridge.

The problem the four boroughs of Dudley, Sandwell, Walsall and Wolverhampton have had for decades is one of perception, of being seen as the poor relation to Birmingham. Talk of merging them into Greater Birmingham just puts people's backs up further.

While Birmingham is a city transformed, Wolverhampton is a field of broken dreams. The Prime Minister seemed to understand that when he visited Birmingham Airport and acknowledged areas like the Black Country had missed out.

People have seen artists' impressions and heard talk of multi-million pound shopping centres, urban villages, canal-side quarters and new railway stations and get fed up when little happens.

Out of a long-awaited £176 million bus, rail and Metro 'interchange' planned for Wolverhampton, the city got a new bus station and a Sainsbury's Local.

The plans are still alive; the begging bowl keeps going out to central government.

Meanwhile Birmingham gets its £600 million refurbishment for New Street and its new £190 million library while the Public Arts Centre in West Bromwich gets shut down. Of course Birmingham deserves the investment. It's the second city. But isn't it our turn yet?

Former Wolverhampton mayor Malcolm Gwynnett has never really struck me as a party politician. So I doubt his departure from the Liberal Democrats to join Ukip will cause Nick Clegg much more grief than the opinion polls already do.

Although it was a well-timed announcement from the Eurosceptics to bring over a prominent city councillor to their ranks on the same day their leader Nigel Farage went head to head with Mr Clegg in a TV debate.

The Liberal Democrats in Wolverhampton have just three seats, all of them in the same ward, Spring Vale.

Yet the past few years have been a troubled time for them. Another of their councillors, Richard Whitehouse, left them in 2012 following a falling out and then re-joined the following year.

Councillor Gwynnett's former colleagues think he has thrown away everything he once believed in to join a party that stands against it on virtually everything but none of this detracts from his record as a councillor who has always been prepared to speak his mind.

Hillsborough victim's father in justice call

THE father of a Cannock Hillsborough victim has called for justice at the inquest into how 96 people died.

David Birtle was just 22 when he went to the Liverpool v Nottingham Forest FA Cup semi-final, but never came home. His father Jim Saunders, who had to identify Mr Birtle's body, called for long overdue action.

Despite living with his dad in the Central pub on Cemetery Road, David was an avid Liverpool fan who travelled to every match, home and away.

He had just passed his heavy goods driving licence and booked the day off to go to the match. He had also been at Heyssel four years earlier when dozens of supporters were crushed to death.

Then, he phoned his dad from Belgium to let him know he was okay. But from Hillsborough the call never came.

Hospitals

"I left the pub to go and find him," Mr Saunders said. "I stopped at every single phone box I saw on the way to ring the pub and ask if he'd been in touch. But he hadn't."

When he arrived in Sheffield Mr Saunders searched in vain the two local hospitals. Reluctantly he drove to the makeshift mortuary at Hillsborough. "They brought a body out and I said, 'I couldn't tell you if that's David'. He'd been battered that much you couldn't tell his face. But he had a big parrot on his T-shirt, that's how you could tell it was our David."

Mr Saunders, now aged 70, said families knew the fans would be blamed.

"All the coppers were interested in were how much booze he'd had," he said. "He'd had one bottle of Newcastle Brown, that was it."

David Birtle was aged just 22 when he died in the Hillsborough tragedy

The inquest, in Warrington, was ordered after the original verdicts of accidental death in 1991 were quashed in the high court in December 2012. It is expected to last for 12 months.

Heart trouble has so far prevented Mr Saunders from travelling. However, yesterday (Wednesday) Mr Bir-tle's mother Jennifer and brother Jonathan were attending to pay tribute.

Mr Saunders, of Woodside Place, is angry at the lack of accountability. He said: "You wonder why it's taken so long for people to see the truth... 'You hope we're on the right track now.'"

Waste is a hazard to youngsters

The Chronicle Thursday, April 10, 2014

WE are told fly-tipping is a serious offence, and that the council would act quickly and decisively to deal with it. If the waste is hazardous, and close to a primary school, you would think this would apply even more.

A council tenant dumps a freezer on the lawn close to the pavement opposite Gorsemoor Primary School, and the council have yet to spring into action. This waste is hazardous, and a danger to young children. If a child gets hurt on this it would make my blood boil.

Personal injury lawyers might enjoy the prospect of some new business, but we'd rather it didn't come to that. The same property dumped a fridge-freezer in the same place last month. My suggestion to the council: kick the repeat offender out of the council property. Too simple? Well come and remove it then.

Honest, straightforward predecessor

I SEE that the correspondence in respect of Aidan Burley's decision to stand down from his position as our MP at the next General Election continues to flood into your letters section.

What surprises me is that all of these letters merely relate to Mr Burley's participation in the infamous Nazi themed stag party.

However, although I am now well into my 80s, my memory cells still continue to function and I will remember reading an article in the now defunct

Chase Post, written by Mr Burley in which extolled the virtues of private ownership of our national forests and woodlands.

This was immediately after Caroline Spelman had divulged the Conservative Party plan to implement this obnoxious policy; the subsequent public outrage caused the Government to abandon this scheme.

Had it not done so another publicly owned asset would have been passed into foreign ownership, thereby accelerating the decline of our country into a virtual banana republic.

Lo and behold, once the scheme had been dropped, our esteemed MP presented himself as a staunch defender of our national forest.

I hope that whoever follows as our MP proves to be as straightforward, sensible and honest as Mr Burley's predecessor. Who knows, we could be lucky.

What are we doing in the EU?

I WAS somewhat surprised at Ed Miliband's statement concerning the EU. He will negotiate a new deal if he is elected and if he cannot get a satisfactory result he will hold a referendum. But he does not want to leave the EU and it would appear he is reluctant to do so.

If that is the case why should we have a Parliament and a House of Lords? It would make more sense to abolish these institutions and let the occupants look for employment elsewhere in the real world.

The writing is on the wall in as much as Angela Merkel indicated to our PM there is no room for negotiation and the English people must in simple words put up with it!

The question is what are we doing in the EU and why are we there?

I would suggest to all our so-called politicians get your act together. At this moment in time we are in a mess. Get us out of it.

Don't miss fighter's last hometown bout

AS a local athlete I have been fortunate enough to have had the support of sponsors from local businesses as well as coverage from The Chronicle.

My Mixed Martial Arts career has progressed a lot over the last two years and I will be fighting in Cannock for the last time this Saturday, April 12 at the Premier Suite. My next five fights will see me at big arenas in major cities around the world.

I am very grateful for the support I have had and I am going to put on a show for everyone who is at the Premier Suite on the 12th.

This is one fight that is not going to go the distance - don't miss it.

One slipped through net, but still no backlog

IN response to the letter by T Warner of Rugeley (Chronicle, April 3).

As MPs we receive literally thousands of e-mails, letters and phone calls each year, handled by two offices and four staff. I aim to reply to every constituent, usually by letter, hand signed, within a week.

Last year I sent more than 5,000 letters. If one slips through the net, then I can only apologise.

I have written to the constituent concerned apologising and responding to her concerns regarding the miners' memorial. We still do not have a backlog though.

Road name is fitting tribute to hero soldier

Sapper Clive Smith at the unveiling of the road in his name with the Cannock branch of the Royal Engineers and dignitaries

A SOLDIER who lost both his legs in a roadside explosion in Afghanistan has been honoured by having a street named after him.

Sapper Clive Smith was guest of honour at the unveiling of the new road sign in Hednesford. The street has been named Clive Smith Grove in recognition of the sacrifice he made.

He was part of a Royal Engineer Search Team looking for IEDs in 2010 when the blast happened. The 28-year-old has since undergone rehabilitation at RAF Headley Court in Surrey.

Councillor George Adamson, leader of Cannock Chase Council, who put the soldier's name forward for the distinction, called him 'a true hero.'

He said: "This will be a permanent feature to honour the commitment and dedication Sapper Smith has made for his country which will be remembered locally and around the district of Cannock Chase."

Standards

Members of the Cannock branch of the Royal British Legion attended the unveiling ceremony, off Eskrett Street bearing standards. The street houses

10 affordable homes by the Wrekin Trust which will open later this year.

Sapper Smith has worked tirelessly for military charities during his recovery and is currently training hard for two sponsored bike rides, the first along the route of Hadrian's Wall and the second from Brussels to London.

The former Chase High School student, who had new prosthetic legs before Christmas, will be devoting more time to his charity work after he leaves the Army in June.

He said: "It's a fantastic honour to have this street in my home town named after me."

Cloudy2Clear Windows - Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes - not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done.

We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service Wolverhampton and the surrounding area and Brian is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Thomas fundraising tally to be announced

Chasetown u-14 players line up for a minute's applause before the memorial game against Walsall

FAMILY and friends of a talented footballer will next weekend announce how much has been raised from a game in his memory.

The charity game was held to remember Thomas Smith, of Hednesford, who died suddenly from meningitis on his 13th birthday last May.

His former football coach Tony Hardwick at Chasetown Scholars under-14s organised the match at the Scholars Ground against Walsall counterparts to raise money for a fund set up in Thomas's name as part of charity Meningitis Now.

A presentation will be held at 2.30pm on Saturday, April, 19, ahead of Chasetown FC's game against Rainworth Miners Welfare, where the final total raised will be revealed. It is estimated to be at least £3,000.

More than 650 people packed in through the gates to watch the under-14s' memorial clash.

Applause

Thomas's parents Andy and Emma were among the crowd and a minute's applause in honour of Aston Villa fan Thomas was held before kick-off.

At the end of the match, the couple was presented with a framed shirt which had been worn by the Kingsmead Technology College student when he played for the club.

The memorial match could become an annual feature.

Shadow minister in post-Budget visit

CANNOCK residents were quizzed on the cost of living by Labour's Shadow Cabinet Minister Michael Dugher MP.

The MP visited the town in the wake of the Budget to speak to residents, along with parliamentary candidate Janos Toth.

Mr Toth said: "After nearly four years of the Tories, hard-working families are on average £1,600 a year worse off and not feeling any economic recovery at all. The Budget proved you're worse off under the Tories.

"The Chancellor talked about how well things are going," he added. "But working people on middle and lower incomes in Cannock, Hednesford and Rugeley are not feeling any recovery at all while those earning over £150,000 a year have been given a tax cut."

Golf pro on sex charges

A GOLF pro has appeared in court charged with 14 sexual offences.

The charges against Guy Dean include making indecent images of children and possessing extreme porn.

Guy Dean, who has worked at clubs in Cannock, Wolverhampton, Rowley Regis, West Bromwich and Pelsall, was first arrested last April.

The 43-year-old of Pelsall Lane,

Bloxwich, entered no pleas to nine counts of making indecent images of a child and five counts of possessing extreme pornographic images when he appeared before Cannock magistrates. The offences are alleged to have taken place from June 2011 to April 2013.

Dean started his professional career at Beaudesert Golf Club in Rugeley Road, Cannock, in 1986. In 1996 he joined European Seniors Tour player Jim Rhodes at South Staffordshire

Golf Club in Tettenhall. He was also head professional at Dartmouth Golf Club, West Bromwich, before spending five years as head professional at Dudley Golf Club, Rowley Regis, in 2000.

In 2005 he became head professional at Penn Golf Club in Wolverhampton, which he left with immediate effect in April after tendering a resignation.

He was given unconditional bail and will appear next at Stafford Crown Court on July 7.

Reg jogs members' memories

CHASE TERRACE
LADIES CLUB

REG Fullelove jogged members' memories about times gone by in his talk entitled A Trip Down Memory Lane. It was an evening filled with much laughter and good memories. He started by reminding the ladies about singing at Sunday school. He also showed a scent card he had which used to be given out to the children on Saints days.

His collection of clothing also reminded the ladies of days gone by. Reg pointed out that everyone probably still has their babies' first shoes. Although this is not a treasure in a monetary sense it is very important in terms of memories.

One of the things that everyone remember to this day is their Co-Op number, the number given when they opened their first account at the Co-Op. Many people can still remember their number they were given when they were conscripted in to the forces as well.

Out of Reg's bag then came a grocery list. This was given to the grocer in the shop listing all the requirements for that week.

This would either be collected on the day from the shop or delivered by them later in the day. All goods had the prices listed. Of course, during the Second World War and for a short time after, ration books were also shown. His wonderful collection led to a fun-filled and very enjoyable evening.

Hats off to Marian as guest speaker

MARIAN Baldwin was the speaker at the March meeting. Her subject was 'Hats' – but it was not what members expected.

Marian used the five hats she had brought as props. The first was a riding hat and she gave an amusing recital of a poem describing a young girl's first gymkhana.

Next came her mother's hat from 1926 and a rendition of The Young Visitors by Daisy Ashford. She had everyone laughing with a story of her own hunt for a hat to wear to a wedding – the fascinator she bought was quickly dismantled and added to a straw hat. This was followed by her grandmother's best black funeral hat to which she had added a veil and she spoke words of Granny Trill and Granny Wallon from Cider with Rosie.

The final rendition was Jenny Joseph's poem, 'When I am old I shall wear purple', delivered wonderfully wearing a purple cape and a red hat.

June Hardman gave the vote of thanks and presented Marian with a donation to the Leicester Endowed Schools.

Nell Gwynn captivates guild

GREAT WYRLEY TG

THE Guild played host to Lesley Smith from Tutbury Castle who entertained a very full mixed audience as Nell Gwynn.

Eleanor "Nell" Gwynn born on February 2, 1650 and died November 14, 1687.

Nell was a long-time mistress of King Charles II, by whom she gave birth to two sons. Lesley, as Nell, held the audience spellbound as she related her life and times, which included tales of her contemporaries including Samuel Pepys, Aphra Benn, Barbara Palmer and Moll Davies.

She also told of her life in the theatre, her role as one of the King's mistresses, her two sons and the history of London.

Nell lived during both the Plague and the Great Fire of London.

At the end, Lesley answered questions from the audience, including the location of Nell's grave. She said how much she enjoyed attending Great Wyrley TG.

Safety concerns after accidents at junction

SAFETY concerns have been raised following three accidents at a busy Cannock crossroads.

Two councillors who live near the junction between Pye Green Road and Cemetery Road are calling for action 'before a fatality takes place.'

They claim four speed cameras installed along Pye Green Road have lost their impact because they are not operational.

The latest accident occurred on Saturday afternoon, March 29, when the road was blocked off by police for 90 minutes as far as the A34 Stafford Road.

Two months ago a car ploughed into a convenience at the junction and repairs have only just been completed. Another collision closed the road just before Christmas.

Camera

Councillor Frank Allen said: "It's a catalogue of events. There have been at least six collisions in the last four years."

Staffordshire County Council's road safety department and the police installed a £107,000 red speed camera at the property of Councillor Gordon Alcott, who lives in Pye Green Road, to help address the problem.

"It cost a lot of money but nobody seems to be monitoring it," he said. "There are also speed cameras at The Pied Piper, Moorland Road, St Aidan's Road and Fieldhouse Road but in the last 18 months I've never seen them flash."

"I use the road frequently and to my knowledge they've not been working for some time. A lot of children use the road, with three schools in the area, which makes it even more important that something is done.

Councillors Frank Allen and Gordon Alcott at the junction

"It's becoming one of the busiest commuter routes in the region."

He and Councillor Allen campaigned to get traffic lights installed at the spot but fear the junction may have been safer without them. Councillor Allen said: "Motorists are shooting the lights. I feel that it was safer when Pye Green Road was the through road. "Whatever the cause of the problem we need to get evidence before a fatality takes place."

Callum phizzes to story writing win

Penkridge Middle School's Callum Milner, winner of the Phizz Whizzing writing competition
A YOUNG pupil proved he was made of the write stuff as his work was picked from thousands of entries to win a national prize.
Callum Milner, aged 10, a Year 6 pupil at Penkridge Middle School wrote a story called The Boy with a Dimension. English teacher Leigh Dankert entered pupils in the competition in autumn last year – and many of the pupils' work was published in an anthology. The challenge in the Young Writers Phizz-Whizzing Stories competition was to create a tale inspired by Roald Dahl.
Headteacher Sue King said: "Staff are very proud of Callum and all the children who entered."

Hole load of M6 trouble

THOUSANDS of motorists were stranded for up to six hours on the M6 came due to emergency works caused by a hole in the carriageway.
A hole about 2ft wide appeared in the northbound section in the early hours of Wednesday morning (April 2), forcing highway bosses to close a stretch of the motorway, from junctions 12 to 13, from 9.30am to 3.30pm.
At the peak of the problems, drivers were being delayed for up to three hours with queues stretching back for 10 miles and surrounding roads becoming clogged. Traffic was stationary back to Junction 8 at the M5 link.
A diversion sent traffic from Junction 12 onto the A5 westbound to the A449 at Gailey to rejoin the M6 northbound at Junction 13.
The Highways Agency said the motorway had to be closed so the emergency repairs could be carried out, but motorists spoke of their frustration.
Emma Rowley was stuck in traffic for six hours on her way to work in Penkridge. The 34-year-old said: "I didn't arrive at work until 3.40pm and I left my house before 9am."
Martin Stott, Highways Agency duty operations manager for the Midlands, said: "A full closure was necessary to enable emergency repair work to take place."

Grass fire numbers soar across county

THE number of grass fires across Staffordshire rocketed last year, new figures reveal.

Grass blazes were up from 266 to 826 between April and December in last year when compared to the same period 12 months earlier.

But bosses say safety campaigns are increasing public awareness about the risk of all kinds of fires.

Figures for the county have also revealed there were 1,126 fires involving property or casualties between April and December last year, a decrease of 34 when compared to the same period in 2012.

There were 414 accidental house fires from April to December 2013 – down by eight on the same period the year before. Small fires, excluding grass blazes, increased by 171 from 957 to 1,128.

Opportunity

Head of risk reduction for the county's fire service Glynn Luznyj said: "We were lucky enough to have enjoyed a fairly long, hot summer."

"The hot weather brings with it an increase in small fires as the opportunity for this type of blaze to occur is far greater."

"The fire service teams will continue to work alongside partner services to minimise the risk of potentially life-threatening consequences of starting fires."

There were also 217 false reports of fires in the county from the start of April to the end of September. This was up from 206 in the same period in 2012.

Bosses said most were not attended as efforts were made to find out if the call was genuine before sending resources.

Spring fair at church

A SPRING fair with stalls and a raffle takes place at Bourne Methodist Church, Hednesford Road, Heath Hayes, on Saturday (April 12) from 10am to 1.30pm. Entry is free. Lunches and refreshments will be available. Messy Church follows at 3pm.

Wedded bliss of 65 years

A RUGELEY couple who met at a dance have marked 65 years of marriage.

Josef and Muriel Knappik wed on April 2, 1949, at Lichfield Registry Office. They first met in 1947 at Rugeley town hall and for the next two years, Josef walked from his prisoner-of-war camp base at Cannock Chase, to Rugeley to take her out. The couple, of Stile Close, Brereton, celebrated with family and friends, including son Michael, aged 58, daughter Christine, 48 and granddaughter Chloe, aged 20.

Mr Knappik, a retired tailor, aged 94, was born in Germany, captured in Belgium and originally brought to Scotland, ending up at Cannock Chase in 1946. Muriel, 84, rose to the rank of general forewoman at Lucas's in Bridgton.

Enrol on first aid course

LOVERS of the great outdoors are being urged to sign up to a special course that could save a life.

Staffordshire Wildlife Trust is running a two-day outdoor first aid course on April 15 and 16 at the nature conservation charity's Wolseley Centre HQ near Rugeley. The course will teach basic life-saving skills for rescue and emergency care in the wilderness.

The course is priced at £110 for both days, with a proportion of the cost going towards the work of the Trust. It runs 9am-6pm both days.

Lorry struck man as he crossed in early hours

A FATHER-of-two was killed when he was hit by a lorry while crossing the road in the early hours of the morning, an inquest heard.

John Taylor, aged 43, died following the collision on the A5 Watling Street in Bridgtown on March 2 last year.

Cannock Coroner's Court heard Mr Taylor had been for a pub meal with his brother-in-law Andrew and some friends before heading home.

Pc Helen Smart, collision investigation unit officer for Stafford, said: "John visited his brother-in-law at around 4.30pm and in the evening they had a meal before returning to Andrew's house for a drink and a chat.

"John was offered the chance to sleep at Andrew's address but declined and walked home.

"CCTV footage from a property appeared to show a male staggering slightly as he moved across the camera."

Tragic John Taylor

Impact

John Baker was driving the lorry that hit Mr Taylor and said there was no way he could have avoided him.

An examination showed he had been driving at a speed of 31 miles per hour and only saw Mr Taylor when he was between two and three metres away.

He said: "I have driven along this route many times. I saw the oncoming vehicle but only saw the pedestrian seconds before the impact."

"He was wearing dark clothing and he was in the middle of the road in the filter lane and he moved into my carriageway by a fraction and collided with the offside of the vehicle."

An investigation revealed there was a crack along the bodywork of the lorry and skid marks on the road. There were no defects or faults on the vehicle and the mirrors were positioned correctly.

A toxicology test revealed Mr Taylor, of Dartmouth Road, Cannock, had a blood alcohol level of 118 milligrams to 100 milligrams of blood. The legal limit to drive is 80.

South Staffordshire coroner Andrew Haigh concluded Mr Taylor died as the result of a road traffic collision.

He said: "It is apparent that Mr Baker did not see John until he was very close to him and in normal circumstances there would not be a pedestrian on the road at this time."

"He was a very healthy and sensible gentleman and it is a shame he died in these circumstances."

Rail users can drop-in to quiz representatives

USERS of the Chase Line are to get another chance to meet train bosses about services in Cannock Chase next month.

Thanks to Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley, London Midland chief executive Patrick Verwer and other senior representatives from the company have accepted an invitation to meet with local passengers.

The drop-in event will take place on Thursday May 15 from 6.30-8pm in the foyer of the Tesco store, Victoria Street in Hednesford.

A similar event organised by the MP last year allowed commuters to tell London Midland bosses face to face about their own experiences on the line.

Mr Burley said: "The Chase Line is vital for many of my constituents, particularly for those who use the line on a daily basis to get to and from work.

Concerns

"I know from speaking to those who attended last year's event that they found it far more useful than the usual complaints procedure.

"I am delighted to have been able to secure another similar meeting to allow local people who use the service to put their questions, concerns and suggestions directly to the man in charge."

Judges see the light as snapper wins contest

The stunning landscape picture captured on Cannock Chase that earned Graham Colling first prize

A KEEN photographer has earned a five-day trip of a lifetime after his stunning shot of Cannock Chase won a top photography contest.

Graham Colling's shot of Cannock Chase had already put him on the shortlist for the international Velux Lovers of Light competition.

Now, the landscape, captured at Newlands Wood, between Huntington and Penkridge, has earned him first prize ahead of 15,000 entries.

The 53-year-old environmental officer from Walsall said: "I'm absolutely shocked. When I look at the standard of the other finalists, I can't believe they've chosen mine over theirs."

Mr Colling, who has twice been commended, in landscape photography contests, added: "Quite apart from anything else I'm delighted to have put the beauty of South Staffordshire on the map."

He has won a five-day trip to the island of Svalbard, off the north Norway coast for the chance to capture an image of the midnight sun. He said: "To go there is an amazing prize. It's great to be able to cross it off my list."

Take a look at Chadsmoor

Chadsmoor and High Town to the north-east of Cannock represent the late-19th-and 20th-century expansion of the town as a mining area.

They now form an almost continuously built-up area joining Cannock to Hednesford. Much of West Chadsmoor consists of council and other housing dating from between the two World Wars and later.

As well as its popular row of niche village shops, Chadsmoor is a popular place for eating out with a number of Indian takeaways within a short distance.

It has a distinctive church history with a school-church being opened in 1874, with transepts and a small chancel being added in 1876. The foundation stone of the present church of St Chad was laid at Easter 1891 'in the presence of a large company of miners and their families', and the church was consecrated in 1892. It is built of machine-made red brick and consists of nave, chancel, south porch, vestry, and organ chamber. Stained glass was inserted in the east window in 1908 in memory of Tabitha Benton. There is one bell in a turret at the north-west corner of the church.

The small wooden church of St Aidan in Pye Green Road, West Chadsmoor, was in use from 1947 to 1956 when it was converted into a church hall. It had one bell. The present church, begun in 1955 on a nearby site on the opposite side of the road, was opened in 1956, the architects being Wood, Goldstraw, and Yorath of Stoke on Trent. Built of light-brown brick, the church consists of a wide nave, a shallow chancel, a south vestry, and a north porch, and has one bell.

A Primitive Methodist chapel was built at Chadsmoor in 1876 and was replaced in 1911 by a new chapel built in front of it. By 1956, the former chapel was being used as a Sunday school and also as a day school. The present chapel, of red brick with stone Gothic windows and doorways, was designed by Jeffries and Shipley.

There is one Baptist chapel, built in Arthur Street, in 1905 at a cost of £1,000. It replaced an earlier Baptist chapel, which stands behind it and was built in 1879. This former chapel was used as a Sunday school and as an overflow for Chadsmoor Central Boys' School. The present chapel is of red brick with stone dressings and leaded windows. It has seating accommodation for 250.

Events to mark 150 years of Methodism

CHURCHGOERS are marking 150 years of Methodism in Chasetown with four weeks of special events and services.

These culminate over the Easter weekend and the whole community is invited to get involved.

Anyone with a past link with the church has been invited. The celebrations include a visit from the current President of the Methodist Conference Rev Ruth Gee, the return of former ministers, Rev Ian Fisher and Rev Pam Rush and input from two overseas ministers Rev Solomon Potogi from Samoa and Rev Chris Furr from the USA. An exhibition of Methodist history and memorabilia is also on display at the Lawnswood Avenue church, while a skittles night takes place on Saturday (April 12) with a fish and chip supper from 7pm.

Methodism founder John Wesley never actually visited Chasetown but the nearest he came was in 1738 when he was going north from Birmingham. His route took him close to what is now Chasewater, across to Five Ways and onto the Cross Keys, a coaching inn.

After believing a severe hail storm was divine reproof for having neglected to preach to the people of the city, he decided to preach at the next stop, which he records in his journal as "Hedgeford".

The first recorded regular gathering of Methodist people in Chasetown was around 1860 when the Wesleyan Methodists met in the club room at the Queens Hotel.

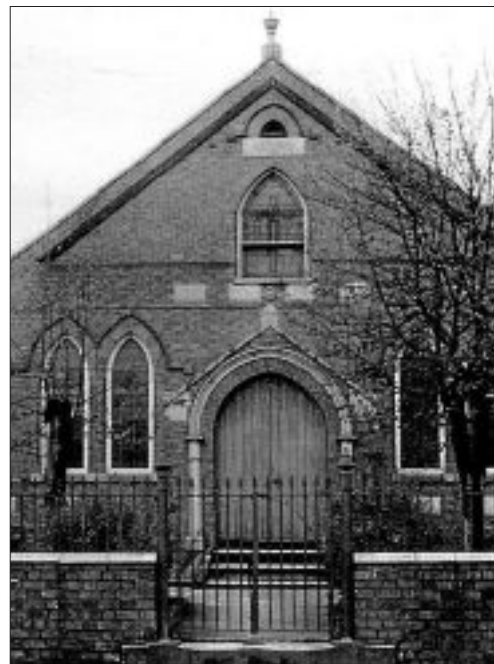

They wanted their own place and looked for a plot of land on which to build a Wesleyan Church. In November 1863 they bought from the Marquis of Anglesey, 770 square acres of land at the bottom of the High Street for £96 5s 0d. A chapel was built at the cost of £259 and opened in March 1864 with a debt of £55 still outstanding. The locals gave generously and were assisted by wealthy Wesleyans in surrounding towns. Within 12 years the church was felt to be too small and fundraising began for a bigger building. The new church, opened in 1884, was known as The New Wesleyan Chapel until 1929 when it became Trinity Methodist Church.

The church continued on this site until 1977. Seven years earlier they had been joined by the former Primitive Methodists - who initially met every Sunday in the slaughterhouse of 'Peake's butchers' in High Street - when their chapel, Zion's Hill closed.

It had opened in 1865 in the High Street, but it too was not big enough. A new church was built and opened in 1887 and worship continued there until 1970.

The new Chasetown Methodist Church, was built on the corner of Queen's Drive and Lawnswood Avenue and official opened on January 22 1977. It was rebuilt early in 1995 and the official opening took place on May 20.

Family celebrates as Gwyn turns 102

Gwyn Williams, aged 102, with staff Pat Houslyn, Donna Titley, Julie Willis, Kamaljit Purewal and Susan Powis

A WAR veteran has celebrated his 102nd birthday at a care home in Great Wyrley.

Gwyn Williams fought during the Second World War and trained troops in Burma. Born in Maesteg in South Wales, he moved to Great Wyrley after wife Maggie died in 1994.

Mr Williams was awarded three medals for fighting during the war and was even a PE teacher for troops based in Burma. He ran a newsagents in his hometown before he retired and moved to Lake View Nursing Home in Stafford Road, Newtown, four weeks ago.

Mr Williams has always celebrated his birthday on March 17 but it wasn't until he was 60 he found out his birth was registered by his grandmother on March 24. He now has two celebrations and marked his most recent milestone with his son John, daughter June, his three grandchildren and great granddaughter.

Nurse Pat Houslyn said: "He came to this part of the world after the death of his late wife Maggie because his children already lived here and he has never left."

"We had a lovely party with cake and Gwyn told all of his family to bring him a beer."

Deal over parking is planned in homes bid

AN end to parking chaos outside two schools and a leisure centre may be close in a deal to include an overspill car park as part of a housing plan.

The plot opposite Cheslyn Hay Sport & Community High School and the neighbouring primary is one of several being considered for new homes by South Staffordshire Council.

By Marion Brennan

The authority is undertaking a district-wide public consultation to identify possible sites for housing over the next 14 years.

The proposed development in Saredon Road, also close to Cheslyn Hay Leisure Centre, includes a 50-space car park for the use of parents and centre users.

Congestion

Landowner Geoff Brown has been liaising with council bosses and school staff over a solution to the problem of congestion at the start and end of the school day.

Mr Brown, a retired chartered town planner, has been farming the land for 12 years but has decided to put some of it forward in response to the council's call for possible housing sites.

He said: "At the moment, this is just one of several possible sites but there's no question that it is unique in being able to resolve this parking problem. The opportunity is here if people want it.

"I've been a town planner for over 40 years so I am naturally concerned about how any development might affect local residents and I think this is an ideal opportunity for me to make a genuine contribution to the local community."

"There is clearly an overwhelming need for extra car parking here, not just for greater parental convenience but more importantly, for child safety."

"The present car parking arrangements are totally inadequate."

Mr Brown said the parking would be free to the community and separate from any housing.

To support the proposal or ask any questions contact Mr Brown by email at thewelsch planner@hotmail.com

Focus on Hednesford

Dedication service for memorial

THE dedication of Phase 3 of the Miners' Memorial in Hednesford takes place at the end of this month.

Rev Nigel McCulloch, former Bishop of Manchester, will lead the service at 2pm on Saturday, April 26.

Rugeley Power Station Band will perform and will accompany the hymns, while Cannock Chase Orpheus Male choir will sing, among other things, the miners' hymn, 'Take Me Home'.

Market Street will be closed to traffic from 12.30pm. Parking will be limited so public transport is advised where possible.

Limited seating will be available for blue badge holders and for those unable to stand for the duration of the service, expected to be around 40 minutes. Members of Chase Arts in Public Spaces (Chaps) committee and Hednesford Lions Club will act as stewards.

The third phase of 913 named bricks brings the total to 3,534, some built into the wall around the Giant Davy Lamp. The dedication service will be held around the clock tower.

Copies of the book "A Lasting Tribute" will be on sale after the service with inserts containing the names of all included in this latest phase.

Improvement works at park to get under way

A PROJECT to make multi-million pound improvements at Hednesford Park will start next month.

Workmen will begin extending the car park in Rugeley Road at the end of the month. Around 30 extra spaces are being added.

Work to extend the pavilion at the site to two-stories featuring a community room, balcony and ground floor café will start by the middle of June. A new skate park is also being created.

Cannock Chase Council spokesman Kate McBey said: "The work is due to start at the end of May. The first stage will be the extension of the car park."

Public

"Work on the pavilion should start by mid-June."

The park was awarded £2.2million from the Heritage Lottery Fund in 2012 and the money is being used to fund the works.

New footpaths are also being created and the railings around the war memorial at the park will also be repaired. New tennis courts have already been installed.

by Charlotte Lilley

In February a signal box was lifted by crane from the Chase line near Hednesford and lowered into position in the park by the pavilion. It is due to be open to the public later this year after being restored to its former glory.

A total of £30,000 had to be raised, with £20,000 donated by Staffordshire County Council from the sale of Pye Green Valley for housing. The remaining £10,000 was raised jointly by Cannock Chase District Council and Hednesford Town Council.

The box will also be used as an office or base when there are events on at the park.

Pupils in store visit

PUPILS from Pye Green Valley Primary School visited Hednesford's Tesco store to understand where their food comes from. The trip was part of Tesco's Eat Happy project, which aims to tackle children's diet-related health problems.

Alan Thomas, Anna Green, Dave Knowles from the Forest of Merica and Tina Hunt

May Day call on big event

PLANS are under way for May Day celebrations in Hednesford and residents are being urged to try their hand at decorating thrones.

A number of people turned up for a workshop at Hednesford Park pavilion to create traditional decorations for the May 10 event.

The free sessions, organised by the park's friends group in partnership with the Forest of Merica, are open to people of all ages.

The next workshop making thrones for the May king and queen will be on April 26 from 10am to 3pm at the site off Rugeley Road, Hednesford.

To book a place call 07855 099353 or email friendsofhednesfordpark@hotmail.co.uk

The items will be used for the town's maypole extravaganza, which will feature fairground rides, canal art displays, stalls, crafts, entertainment, games and refreshments.

Workshops on theme of author

HOLIDAY workshops inspired the books of Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler take place over the Easter holidays.

The drop-in sessions take place at the Museum of Cannock Chase in Valley Road, Hednesford.

Youngsters can make monsters, mobiles, stick men, bookmarks, door hangers and animal masks based on the writers' creations from April 22-24.

They will be preceded on April 15 and 16 by an Easter extravaganza, making crowns, baskets, lambs, chicks and flowers.

Workshops take place from 11am to 3pm at a cost of £1.50 per child, who must be accompanied by an adult, and there is no need to book.

Visitors can also take part in quizzes, enjoy outdoor trails and take a look at the new mining gallery. The museum is open from 11am-5pm.

Admission is free.

Pit exhibition is reopened

A GALLERY celebrating the area's mining heritage has re-opened following a £150,000 transformation.

The permanent Mining Memories exhibition at The Museum of Cannock Chase includes interactive displays and a crawl-through tunnel.

The project was mainly paid for by a £97,600 grant from the Heritage Lottery Fund. An opening event is planned for June 28.

NEARLY 25 years on, Miss Saigon has shown its enduring popularity by setting a new box office record ahead of its return to London in May this year.

The musical by Alain Boublil and Claude-Michel Schönberg sees Puccini's Madama Butterfly relocated to Saigon in 1975 and tells the story of a young Vietnamese bar worker called Kim who falls in love with a GI called Chris.

Miss Saigon opens at the Prince Edward Theatre in May, the production's 25th anniversary year. Book your break now choosing from one of the options below.

Countess in visit to the county

THE Countess of Wessex is to visit Staffordshire for an insight into JCB's successful £1 million fundraising appeal for the NSPCC.

Employees raised the amount through scores of different events to help children in Staffordshire who are at risk of abuse.

Their efforts enabled the purchase of NSPCC service centre Carole House in Newcastle-under-Lyme.

Carole House - named in honour of Lady Bamford and JCB's support of the NSPCC - will be the first stop on Her Royal Highness' visit to Staffordshire on Tuesday, April 29.

The Countess, President of the NSPCC, will meet Lady Bamford and NSPCC chief executive Peter Wanless, take a tour of the premises, meet staff and unveil a plaque to open the facility.

Later the Countess will visit JCB's World HQ at Rocester to open The Story of JCB, the company's permanent exhibition before then attending a reception to meet employees.

Landlord in minor sales keeps licence

A PUB landlord who it is claimed turned on police who caught his staff serving under-age drinkers can keep his licence - but is passing responsibility to his wife.

Other officers were called as back-up to The White Lion in Huntington after licensee Thomas Dunning and punters became 'angry', it was said.

Earlier two 15-year-old girls were sent into the Stafford Road pub as part of a compliance testing operation.

At a Cannock Council licensing committee hearing Mr Dunning was ordered to improve staff training and hand over day-to-day management to his wife.

David Prosser-Davies from the licensing authority, said: "Two under-age persons were sold alcoholic drinks and afterwards the designated premises supervisor became angry and verbally aggressive and other customers became hostile and back-up was required."

The test, on November 29, was set up by Staffordshire Police in a crackdown on under-age drinking.

Mark Brown for Admiral Taverns speaking on behalf of Mr Dunning said the landlord had worked in the pub industry for 40 years and was 'not proud' of his reaction to the operation.

Meeting chairman Councillor Brian Bottomer ordered Mr Dunning to train his staff and hand responsibility for the business to his wife.

Students dig deep at hospital

STUDENTS from South Staffordshire College are working up a sweat carrying out maintenance work at a hospital site.

The 10 students, based at the college's Rodbaston Campus, are carrying out maintenance jobs in the grounds of Huntercombe Hospital, Stafford.

They spend one morning a week at the hospital. Tasks include pruning, cutting and planting as well as the general upkeep of the planted areas and walkways.

There are also plans for the students to undertake long-term projects within the hospital's grounds.

The students are on a Pathways to Progression course, aimed at helping them to gain the necessary skills to progress onto the next level course within the college or into employment. Huntercombe Hospital is a child and adolescent mental health service for young people aged 12 to 18 and has a range of courses allowing patients to study while in hospital.

Fun time Frank is coming home

COMEDIAN Frank Skinner is coming home to the Black Country and Birmingham, starting with gigs on Wednesday and Thursday, April 16-17, at Wolverhampton Civic Hall.

The Albion-supporting former lecturer at Halesowen College of Further Education, when he was known as Chris Collins, also brings his Man In A Suit Tour to the Symphony Hall for three consecutive nights from April 22. Call 0870 310 7000 for Wolverhampton tickets and 0121 345 0600 for Birmingham.

Tickets sold out within 90 minutes when hyperactive Lee Evans announced a warm up gig for his stadium tour at Stafford's Gatehouse Theatre on May 10.

Air and Fire on offer at Robin 2

PROGRESSIVE and psychedelic rock sounds from the 1960s and 70s are an influence on many of today's bands, from Muse to Temples, and the Robin 2 in Bilston is offering chances to check out a couple of those bands that pushed back the boundaries.

Sonja Kristina brings Curved Air (£15 advance/£16 door) featuring original drummer Florian Pilkington-Miksa to the venue on Sunday then on Thursday flamboyant Arthur Brown (£14 advance/£16 door) brings his Crazy World to perform Fire and other rituals with flaming helmet! Call 01902 401211.

Last bow for the legendary Torvill and Dean Bolero routine

JT's 20/20 vision at LG Arena

IT'S party time at the LG Arena this weekend when American pop superstar Justin Timberlake brings his 20/20 Experience World Tour to the West Midlands.

The tuxedo and loaf-er-clad JT is promising an epic show. The set has featured up to 30 songs at other venues, many drawn from his two part album The 20/20 Experience, which last year completed the Memphis-born singer's return to the top in the music world after concentrating on his movie acting career.

Expect Mirrors, Rock Your Body, My Love and Cry Me A River, plus a couple of surprise cover versions, as the former member of boy band 'N Sync draws on a 12 year solo career.

Tickets start at £56.20 and go up to £104.70 for this blue chip gig.

ICE is forecast as three skating shows glide into the region.

Torvill and Dean's Dancing On Ice The Final Tour at the NIA Birmingham from April 18 to 21 boasts a star-studded line-up from the TV show.

Champion of Champions Ray Quinn, the former X Factor crooner from Liverpool, tops the bill also featuring Grand panto favourite Joe Pasquale, Hear'Say singer and actress Suzanne Shaw, West End star Bonnie Langford, Olympic gymnast Beth Tweddle, Pop Idol runner-up singer Gareth Gates, former England rugby captain Kyran Bracken and Coronation Street actress Hayley Tamaddon.

Olympic gold medal winner Robin Cousins will lead the panel of judges which also features Karen Barber and Nicky Slater.

The biggest draw will no doubt be one of Jayne Torvill and Christopher Dean's final performances of their legendary Bolero routine. This year marked the 30th anniversary of the routine at the Sarajevo Winter Olympics on Valentine's Day 1984 that captivated millions watching on TV around the world. It won the skaters from Nottingham gold after a flawless performance was rewarded with maximum points.

Robin Cousins' Ice will see a new generation of talent slide into action at

Ice stars Torvill and Dean

Wolverhampton's Grand Theatre from April 23 to 27. Ice has been created by — but does not feature — veteran ice star Cousins. He handpicked the skaters for what he promises is a spectacular production, 30 years since his Electric Ice show first brought the grace and glamour of ice dancing to British theatres.

More blade action as The Russian Ice Stars bring Peter Pan on Ice to Lichfield's Garrick Theatre from April 22 to 26.

1960s nostalgia as veterans tour

FANS of 1960s music have a tough choice tomorrow night (Friday) with stars from pop's golden era in action at two local venues.

Motown legend Martha Reeves — whose hits include soul classics Dancing In The Streets, Jimmy Mack and Nowhere To Run — brings her Vandel-las to Bilston venue The Robin 2. The 72-year-old great-grandmother returned to touring after serving as a councillor in her home city of Detroit. Tickets cost £20 in advance or £22.50 on the door.

At Birmingham Town Hall there is a package show featuring Brian Poole and The Tremeloes plus Chris Farlowe and Chris Montez backed by Vanity Fare. Tickets £28 plus fees.

Top tap talent step into Grand

TAP Factory has nothing to do with bathroom suites but it is being credited with rejuvenating a style of dance most readily associated with Fred Astaire, Gene Kelly and the golden age of Hollywood.

Tap is brought bang up to date with elements of hip hop, acrobatics and street dance in this show at Wolverhampton Grand Theatre for two nights only, Monday and Tuesday.

Dance is a major part of West Side Story at Birmingham's New Alexandra Theatre, using the groundbreaking 1950s choreography of Jerome Robbins, on until April 19.

Ant & Dec

Britain's Got Talent (ITV, 7.15pm)

Now that The Voice UK has been laid to rest for another few months, this old favourite is unveiled to the masses. You know the drill by now: thousands of hopefuls take to the stage for there few minutes of fame, while the camera cuts to Ant and Dec every few minutes backstage. Last year's winner's, the shadow performance group Attraction, went down a storm with the masses both in the show at the Royal Variety, as well as appearing in a lucrative advertising campaign, so who knows what awaits the 2014 winner – or winners? Naturally there will be plenty of witty asides from judges Simon Cowell, David Walliams, Amanda Holden and Alesha Dixon.

Stephen Mangan and Gemma Arterton

The Olivier Awards 2014 (TV, 10.15pm)

The screen stars have had their fun at the Baftas, the Oscars, the Golden Globes and all the other red-carpet bashes that make up the award season. So now it's time for Britain's theatre actors to take centre stage, as ITV brings us highlights from the 38th Olivier Awards. It looks set to be a good night for musicals, with the new version of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and the revival of Stephen Sondheim's Merrily We Roll Along leading the field with seven nominations each. So, have your jazz hands at the ready as Gemma Arterton and Stephen Mangan present the ceremony from the Royal Opera House. And if that doesn't sound theatrical enough, Benny Andersson and Björn Ulvæus are also dropping by to celebrate 15 years of Mamma Mia!

BBC1

6.00 Breakfast. 7.05 Match of the Day (R) 8.30 Athletics: London Marathon. 2.30 Sunday Politics. 3.45 Bargain Hunt. (R) 4.30 Escape to the Country. 5.00 Songs of Praise. 5.35 The People's Portrait.

6.35 BBC News: Regional News; Weather.

7.00 Countryfile. The Merseyside coast around Southport is the setting this week as Matt Baker looks at the history of shrimping in the area and Ellie Harrison visits a farming family as they harvest this year's first crop of potatoes. Shauna Lowry meets a couple of brothers inspired by the area's seascapes and talks to artist Antony Gormley about his standing men statues, spread out along the shoreline of Crosby beach. Tom Heap investigates the demise of farmland birds in the UK over the past few decades and Adam Henson looks at the latest gadgets available to farmers. Including Weather for the Week Ahead.

8.00 Antiques Roadshow. Fiona Bruce and the experts pay a return visit to the Royal Agricultural University near Cirencester in the Cotswolds. Items included a mantrap that was used to stop an amorous lover intent on elopement with a vicar's daughter, a portrait of the first chairman of a well-known British insurance company, a 14th-century seal bought at a car-boot sale and a teapot which may have been handled by Lord Nelson. Red button viewers can play along by guessing the valuations.

9.00 The Crimson Field. Kitty nurses a badly injured major who wakes to discover his troops have been all-but wiped out, while Joan clashes with Sister Margaret over the volunteers' responsibilities.

10.00 BBC News: Regional News; Weather.

10.25 Match of the Day 2. Liverpool v Manchester City and Swansea City v Chelsea. Highlights of the Premier League matches at Anfield and the Liberty Stadium respectively.

(R) 4.30 Fog It! 5.30 Athletics: London Marathon – Highlights.

6.30 Golf: The Masters – Live. Hazel Irvine presents coverage of the fourth and final day from the Augusta National in Georgia, where the year's first Major is set to reach a conclusion. Before last year's tournament, Australian golfers had finished in second place a total of nine times, but both Jason Day and Adam Scott were among the leaders for much of the week, and Scott eventually ended his country's agonising record by beating Angel Cabrera on the second hole of a play-off. Tiger Woods sporadically threatened to challenge, but could not find the consistency to end his drought in Majors that dates back to 2008, while Thorbjørn Olesen of Denmark found himself in the unlikely position of leading European in a tie for fifth, with Lee Westwood the highest-placed British golfer in a share of eighth. With commentary by Peter Alliss, Ken Brown, Andrew Cotter and Paul Azinger, and reports by Rishi Persad. Subsequent programmes subject to change.

12.00 Film: Phantoms. (1998) Two sisters and a sheriff try to find out why all the residents of their home town have vanished, with help from a paranormal expert. Horror, starring Peter O'Toole and Ben Affleck. 1.30 Sigzon. Countryfile. Princess Anne invites Tom Heap to her Gloucestershire home, Gatcombe Park, which she runs as a working farm, talking about the issues facing the British countryside. (R) 2.25 Holby City. Harry is intrigued to learn Raf and Amy's marriage is not quite as perfect as it appears. Dominic offends best friend Zosia. (R) 3.25 This is BBC Two.

6.30 ITV News; Weather.

6.45 Catchphrase. Stephen Mulhern hosts the game show, asking three contestants to "see it and say it" as they try to guess the familiar phrases hidden in animated clues. After the first elimination, the two remaining players battle to reach the Super Catchphrase round, where one of them could win £50,000.

7.30 Off Their Rockers. A pensioner attempts a daredevil escape from a care home. Rosemary needs help to locate her dog and Sonia has a quick nap on a comfy shoulder. Hidden-camera comedy, featuring fearless senior citizens playing pranks on the public.

8.00 Endeavour. A housewife found to death in her own home marks the third strangulation in a month, setting Oxford police on edge. As a manhunt begins in search of a murderer targeting married women, Endeavour looks into the origin of the silk stocking used to kill the latest victim, tracing the garment to its sole supplier in the city. However, as the suspect list narrows and the culprit stalks his prey with increasing desperation, Morse and Thursday find their private lives turned upside down and miss a deeper tragedy unfolding.

10.00 ITV News at Ten; Weather.

10.15 The Olivier Awards 2014. Highlights of today's ceremony celebrating British theatre, featuring Abba's Benny Andersson and Björn Ulvæus in a 15th-anniversary celebration of the hit stage show Mamma Mia!

THURSDAY

Mercury Rising, ITV, 10.35pm

A top-secret government agency has developed a seemingly unbreakable code – only for an autistic boy to crack it in an instant. Assassins succeed in gunning down his parents, but a maverick FBI agent investigating their deaths finds the child hiding in a closet, and resolves to shield him from the hitmen on his trail. Thriller, starring Bruce Willis. (1998)

FRIDAY

The Bourne Supremacy, ITV, 10.15pm

The amnesiac assassin is living quietly in hiding, until his former employers come after him again and murder his girlfriend. A CIA operation has ended in disaster, and those responsible intend to clear their names by implicating Bourne. As the former secret agent tries to evade the hitmen on his trail, he also struggles to piece together the truth about his past. Action thriller sequel, starring Matt Damon, Brian Cox, Joan Allen and Julia Stiles. (2004)

Pick of the Week

The nation waits for a new star to be born

Now The Voice UK has been laid to rest for another few months, the talent search gap is filled by this old favourite.

You know the drill by now: thousands of hopefuls take to the stage for there few minutes of fame, while the camera cuts to Ant and Dec every few minutes backstage cackling like light entertainment's answer to Hamlet's Rosencrantz and Guildenstern.

If that reference is too highbrow, rest assured there's no chance of that with BGT. It won't tax your literary knowledge at all, but it will delight, shock, entertain and leave millions in face-palm mode as the good, the mediocre and the genuinely hopeless deliver their act.

So, if Ant had any advice for the participants, what would it be? "Step it up when you get to the live shows," he explains. "Those acts that have got real talent raise their game and put a lot of thought and rehearsal into their act." Dec admits he is always amazed by the variety of talent on offer. "Every day we arrive at the auditions and don't know who is about to appear, so for us it's as surprising as it is for the audience. That's why we love our role on the show."

There's a slight change to proceedings this year with the introduction of the Golden Buzzer. Each judge gets the chance to press it, which will fast track the act to the live shows without any further auditions. As judges Simon Cowell, David Walliams, Amanda Holden and Alesha Dixon are now all proud parents, there's perhaps little surprise the BGT marketing team have coined the phrase: "The Mummy and Daddy of all talent shows is back!" Hmm, not the greatest tagline we've ever seen, but it scarcely matters as many of the acts we'll see this year should make up for any lacklustre straplines. And who knows? Some of the contestants may even end up as movie stars.

Since the series began seven years ago we've marvelled as Paul Potts went from phone salesman to singing sensation; gasped at Diversity's street-smart moves, and our ribs were tickled by impressionist Paul Burling. All have been featured in movies since, with James Corden portraying Potts in One Chance, Ashley Banjo's dance troupe stealing the show in Streetdance 3D, and Burling appearing in The Harry Hill Movie. And with winning pooch Pudsey about to be seen on the big screen in his own film, it looks like BGT-inspired flicks are set to continue for some time to come. Last year's winner's, the Hungarian shadow performance group Attraction, went down a storm with the masses both in the show at the Royal Variety, as well as appearing in a lucrative advertising campaign, so who knows what awaits the 2014 winner – or winners?

As the show kicks off, there will be plenty of witty asides from judges Simon, David, Amanda and Alesha, and no doubt a few plugs for Cowell and Harry Hill's new musical I Can't Sing along the way.

Let's hope the vocalists in this edition don't live up to its name.

The judges pass their opinion in Britain's Got Talent, ITV, 7.15pm

Best of the Rest

MONDAY

Undeniable

ITV, 9pm

Monday night, 9pm, ITV – which means it's time for another one of their WIPFPBD sagas (Woman in peril from psycho bloke dramas). Okay, that acronym will never catch on, but ITV bosses love turning out these formulaic strands regardless, and the latest one is a cracker. For newcomers, Claire Goose plays Jane Phillips, a woman who recognises Andrew, the consultant oncologist who killed her mother 23 years ago. Despite undeniable evidence, Jane remains convinced he is guilty, so when her prime suspect is reinstated at the hospital where he works, she assaults him. The supporting cast includes Peter Firth, Felix Scott, Christine Bottomley and Pippa Haywood.

The Treasure Hunters

BBC1, 9pm

After spending last week seeking out the earth's natural treasures, Dallas Campbell and Ellie Harrison turn their attentions to those which have been crafted by human hands. As the two-part documentary draws to a close, Dallas dons his diving suit and descends to a shipwreck where 5,000 emeralds have been found, before heading off to locate a treasure chest hidden in the Rocky Mountains and coming face to face with China's Terracotta Army. Ellie, meanwhile, walks into a bejewelled room in Russia which has been decked out with millions of pounds' worth of amber. She also talks to diamond-cutters about just how costly a slip of the hand can be, and stares into the death mask of Tutankhamun.

TUESDAY

The Big Allotment Challenge

BBC2, 8pm

Amateur stitchers have The Great British Sewing Bee, cooks have MasterChef, and people who can make really nice bread have The Great British Bake Off, so it was probably about time that the nation's gardeners got a chance to show off their skills. Presented by Fern Britton, the six-part series sees nine pairs of 'allotmenters' taking on challenges designed to test their ability to cultivate fruits, vegetables and flowers that will meet the high standards of award-winning gardener Jim Butters, international floral designer Jonathan Moseley and 'Queen of Preserves' Thane Prince. In this opening episode, the contestants face their first challenge – growing and presenting three matching radishes and seven perfect spikes of sweet peas, making up a floral arrangement and turning ingredients from their allotment into jam.

WEDNESDAY

The Hunt for the Boston Bombers

Channel 4, 10pm

This documentary charts the efforts of the FBI and Boston Police Department to track down those responsible for the bombs which killed three people and injured a further 264 at last year's Boston Marathon. Spokespeople from those organisations, as well as victims and witnesses relate the events of that terrifying day, as well as the procedures the authorities followed – and the dilemmas they faced when it came to revealing who their suspects were. Was it right to release photographs of the culprits in an attempt to flush them out, or did it lead to further acts of violence? There's also an insight into the part played by the media, and the lessons learned from the experiences of all involved.

THURSDAY

Protecting Our Parents

BBC2, 9pm

It might shock most to know that there are more pensioners than children living in Britain, and more pressure than ever is being placed on the NHS and social services. This insightful three-part series examines the issue, as cameras follow teams in Birmingham dealing with older adults, charting cases over the course of a year from their perspective. In this first instalment, we meet Betty Williams, Jim Page and Henry Robinson, who have each found themselves in hospital as the result of a fall. They're all keen to return home, but the professionals are faced with the challenge of balancing their patients' safety with their hankering for independence.

FRIDAY

The Great North Passion

BBC1, 12pm

It's Good Friday and BBC is marking the occasion by taking the story of the Passion, from Christ's trial to his eventual death, and transplanting it to the seafront at South Shields. If you don't think that sounds particularly biblical, you'll have to think again when you see the set for this live event – it's being staged in a cross made out of shipping containers. Presenter Fern Britton will also be bringing us this extravaganza of art, dance and music, with contributions from local performers and special guest, one-time X Factor winner Alexandra Burke. And documentary short films exploring both the Passion and the story of the North East, it looks set to be a celebration of the region, as well as a timely reminder that there's more to Easter than chocolate eggs.

Property

An executive detached with five bedrooms

A FIVE-bedroomed executive detached residence in Cheslyn Hay lies on a prestigious development close to village amenities.

Well-planned accommodation makes the property in Moons Lane an ideal family home.

With gas central heating and double glazing, it has an impressive reception hallway with a guest cloakroom, a spacious lounge, a re-fitted breakfast kitchen, sitting room with doors to the conservatory and a dining room with patio doors out to the rear garden.

Stairs from the hallway lead to a galleried landing with access to the bedrooms – the master having an ensuite. The front is enclosed within a boundary wall with ornate wrought iron railings and it is approached via a pair of wrought iron gates.

A block paved driveway gives off-road parking and access into the garage with electrically operated up and over doors.

It is for sale through DB Roberts & Partners at £435,000. Call 01543 469966 or visit www.dbroberts.co.uk

It's win-win situation as Skoda bags two awards

By David Banner

ŠKODA UK scooped two prestigious accolades at this year's Fleet News Awards which took place at the Grosvenor House Hotel in London.

The 'Oscars' of the fleet calendar, the annual event recognises the best-performing businesses and individuals within the sector during the last 12 months.

The panel of judges, made up of members of the Fleet News editorial team as well as industry experts, voted the Škoda Octavia Estate the 'Best Estate Car' for its combination of affordability and space, in addition to its range of efficient power plants. The Superb Estate, a winner of the award for the last two years, once again came highly-acclaimed in the same class.

In what proved to be a busy night for the vehicle manufacturer, the Škoda Yeti was also named 'Best Crossover', a model praised by the panel for quality, versatility, low rate of depreciation, and offering a very appealing and solid proposition to fleet operators.

Workhorse

Judge Stephen Briers, editor of Fleet News said: "The Octavia Estate has the best balance of space versus cost in this category.

"An excellent choice of efficient engines combined with strong driver appeal, makes it an ideal option as a stylish and flexible workhorse.

"Škoda's second winner, Yeti, is a good all-rounder, with excellent running costs and the flexibility offered by on-road (or genuine) off-road options. The 2013 facelift made an already great car even better. Excellent build quality and very strong used values add to the perfect package."

Patrick McGillicuddy, head of fleet Škoda UK said: "We are extremely proud to have received these two prestigious industry awards for the Škoda Octavia Estate and the Yeti crossover. Providing an exceptional level of practicality and value for money, as well as highly competitive CO2 emissions, both models have consistently proved popular amongst company car drivers."

He added: "These accolades are a great achievement and further reinforce a very encouraging first quarter for Škoda fleet. It is also testament to the team's continued commitment to building strong relationships with our customers and offering them expert advice about the model range."

Virtual cockpit is set to debut in new Audi TT

A virtual cockpit which de-clutters car interiors and presents driver information in a simpler and less distracting way will make its debut in the new Audi TT this autumn and gradually be introduced across the company's range.

It will be a standard feature of the TT, though some of its functions – like navigation – will come at extra cost on some versions. There will be no optional head-up display, however. Audi says the hardware would be too difficult to package in a car as small as the TT, and the sort of information drivers would want would cover up too much of the shallow windscreen.

In the TT, the virtual cockpit puts the navigation, entertainment, connectivity or car systems information directly in front of the driver on a high-resolution 12.3-in virtual-display colour monitor, along with the speedometer, rev counter and other essential information. This replaces a conventional instrument cluster.

The driver has the option of changing the display, so that – say – the navigation map can be given greater prominence than the speedometer, at the touch of a button.

Audi's familiar MMI (man-machine interface) central control system on the console between the front seats has been retained, but with a simplified number of buttons. The whole system can also be operated from the steering wheel or via voice controls.

New X-Trail from Nissan is inspired by popular

By David Banner

The latest Nissan X-Trail ditches the Bear Grylls image and instead takes inspiration from Nissan's market-leading crossovers – Qashqai, Juke and Murano.

Has it gone soft or is it merely trying to win a popularity contest? In truth, neither. It's just a smart piece of product development reacting to a changing marketplace.

Under the bonnet, the core engine is a significantly updated dCi 130 version of the previous model's 2.0-litre diesel, optionally mated to a newly-developed Xtronic CVT gearbox. A 1.6-litre DIG-T 163PS petrol engine has also been developed for this car.

Although the X-Trail appears to have become a bit more lifestyle oriented, this is Nissan we're talking of here; manufacturers of some of the cleverest all-wheel drive systems around.

They just can't help themselves.

Yes, you can buy a front-wheel drive X-Trail and it'll probably make sense for quite a few buyers, but the four-wheel drive chassis is extremely clever.

The electronic four-wheel drive system, All Mode 4x4i, is controlled via a rotary switch on the centre console. It offers a choice between two-wheel drive, Auto mode or Lock-off permanent four-wheel drive. So far, so conventional.

The X-Trail also features Active Ride Control and Active Engine Brake. Active Ride Control monitors the road surface to detect undulations which could potentially upset the pitch of the car body and alters the damping to compensate. Active Engine Brake meanwhile, harnesses the power and controllability of the Xtronic transmission to add a degree of engine braking while cornering or when decelerating to a standstill.

Individually

Then there's Active Trace Control. By using on board sensors to monitor speed, steering angle, throttle opening and braking effort, Active Trace Control brakes wheels individually, as required, to reduce understeer and help the driver steer a safer path through bends: it is particularly effective on slippery, wet roads. Finally the X-Trail benefits from Uphill Start Support and Advance Hill Descent Control.

The interior is a good deal more spacious than before and features theatre-style seating with the option of two extra seats to make room for seven inside.

Practical touches include rear side doors which open to almost 80 degrees – far wider than normal – to allow not just easy access but also to ease the loading and unloading of a child seat. Middle row seat comfort has been improved thanks to extra knee room generated by the longer wheelbase and the front seats having more heavily sculpted seat backs.

The middle-row seats recline and slide while, where fitted, the third row folds forward to increase luggage space. Helpful touches include, for example, a large between-the-seats console box. The box itself is large enough to take an iPad or 10in ablet.

The luggage bay can be partitioned into upper and lower areas in a simple single-handed move. In its top-most position, a dividing board can hold up to 10kg of luggage, or 75kg in its lower position.

This split cargo solution enables the user to store, for example, a stroller and large items below while creating a fully usable upper load surface for smaller, lighter items.

A remotely-powered tailgate eases access to the luggage area. Build quality looks much improved.

Standard

This X-Trail is available in three familiar grades: Visia, Acenta and Tekna. All trim levels feature air-conditioning, alloy wheels and six airbags, LED daytime running lights, five-inch colour combimeter display, Bluetooth with microphone, cruise control and speed limiter.

Hill start assist, follow me home lights and a luggage board system are also among the features fitted as standard.

Range-topping Tekna models feature an array of technologies which further confirm Nissan's lead in the crossover market. These include LED headlamps, leather seats, electrically-adjustable driver's seat, front and rear parking sensors and 19-in alloy wheels.

In addition, Tekna models also feature Intelligent key with engine start button, forward emergency braking, lane departure warning, high beam assist and traffic sign recognition.

The Nissan X-Trail is a vehicle which has often struggled to assert itself in a market packed with talent.

The galling thing for Nissan is that on talent alone, it's often been one of the best in its class but it has lacked that bit of X-factor which translates into solid orders.

The latest model aims to bring that desirability to the X-Trail. With more space, more equipment, better build quality and a sleeker look, it's a car which instantly looks much more upmarket than before.

Toyota ticks all the boxes with this new go anywhere off-road star

By Sharon Walters

I do go from extreme to extreme in cars – from tiny city runabouts to luxury executive limos and vans and everything in between.

And it's great fun experiencing driving right across the board. Having a look at vehicles that fill the need (or sometimes don't!) of the people they are aimed at.

And I particularly like getting behind the wheel of potential serious 4x4s – and I mean potential because let's face it the vast majority of those sold in the UK only ever see properly surfaced roads and don't get the chance to show off their skills ploughing up and down steep muddy, stoney or grassy slopes. Or traversing water, although with the weather we have experienced in the past few months wading through floods did become the norm for so many of us.

You can get some quite small but very capable 4x4s, for example the Suzuki Jimny, medium range and the monster man. And the Toyota Land Cruiser certainly falls into the latter category. And while this mud-plugger does do very, very well off road this giant also holds its own on the asphalt, unlike many of its rivals, giving a comfortable ride rather like that of a large estate car without any bouncing up and down and jarring your back.

So, if you want the option of being able to ford our swollen roads and wade axle-deep through the mud left behind when tides recede, coupled with having a 'normal' vehicle, the Land Cruiser fits the bill. It is versatile indeed, and it's latest revamp has improved on that.

There are 60 years of experience behind this Toyota and while many said how could you improve it, the 2014 update has, with the redoubtable Land Cruiser benefitting from new styling inside and out and improvements to handling. The reworked design preserves the model's distinctive identity, while the interior changes raise quality, convenience and ease of use.

Design changes for three and five-door models have been led by distinctive new frontal treatment with deeper front bumper, heritage-inspired grille and new light clusters coupled with revised rear lamp units and introduction of new alloy wheel designs and exterior colour choices.

Inside there's a comprehensive upgrade of interior trim and the dashboard redesign includes a new control panel for on and off-road driving systems, full colour TFT multi-information display screen and Optitron meters.

The dashboard remains functional and chunky as befits a proper 4x4 but it is sophisticated in content and means of operation.

Comfortable

The second and third row seats have been revised for easier access, a much needed improvement as it was difficult for those of a less than athletic nature to board and disembark comfortably and modestly.

That good handling and ride comfort improvement are down to adjustments to standard suspension and Kinetic Dynamic Suspension and safety features have been extended with the options of a new blind spot monitor and rear cross traffic alert.

And of course in the all-important environmental area the excellent 3.0-litre turbodiesel engine has been revised to meet Euro5+ emissions standard with added advantage of no decrease in performance. This is a big vehicle and any reduction would have been a major disadvantage. Constantly having to push the engine would have been no joy.

The Toyota Land Cruiser's famed durability means that it has big resale values which help drive the overall cost of ownership down.

My recent driving experience did mainly involve everyday day-to-day getting from A to B and it was enjoyable. It doesn't feel as if you are behind the wheel of a big, ungainly vehicle.

Once I'd climbed in (literally for one of my stature) good visibility, seat and steering wheel adjustments set, trips were easy and even parking in public car parks where spaces can be tight was a doddle made even easier by the rear view monitor. A brief foray into forest tracks also showed the Cruiser was still as willing to take on off-road challenges.

The Land Cruiser enjoys a global reputation as an ultimate go-anywhere vehicle, a status built on its formidable performance in the world's toughest environments over more than 60 years. Throughout that time, Land Cruiser has been progressively developed to harness new technologies to extend its capabilities, both on-road and off, and to increase in customer appeal in terms of styling, equipment, comfort and practicality.

And that's just what's been done for 2014. There's a three model range with prices starting at £34,995 for the Active, £47,495 for the Icon and £52,495 for the Invincible.

A top-class performer off-road and a true icon

By David Banner

In a Miss Universe contest the Jeep Wrangler wouldn't get past the third reserves to strut its stuff and say how much it likes travelling, children and cuddly kittens.

Because, let's face it, the Wrangler is no beauty – not even a pretty little thing. Although it certainly has iconic looks and ones which you would never forget.

But where it does win hands down is in its ability to get down and dirty and take on just about any difficult road conditions and be an ultimate off-road machine.

Oh, and by the by, on-road its ride is more than OK for a car like this.

While I didn't actually need full off-road abilities during a road test a couple of weeks ago, I did need a car with plenty of grip and clearance during the floods.

I rather fondly called it my 'Tonka' toy as I traversed roads awash with water and mud – and bumped in and out of the massive potholes which have appeared during the past few months.

Earlier this year the legendary Wrangler demonstrated its award-winning credentials after taking 4x4 magazine's 4x4 of the Year, for the second year running. The award, which goes specifically to the four-door Wrangler, came from the specialist publication's panel of expert judges, who put the rugged US-built off-roader above some extremely capable competitors.

Its off-road prowess shone as it used its immense power and torque while delivering a gorgeously low, first crawler gear when finesses was needed. Towing is also easy for this meaty vehicle. And while it is rough and tough looking, inside it is comfortable and well equipped, offering good value for money.

In fact, its standard specification offers so much, there is very little to opt for in 'extras'.

On the list, far too extensive to go into detail here, are 18in x 7.5in alloy wheels painted in satin silver with 255/70 R18 on/off-road tyres, front fog lights, air conditioning with automatic temperature control, front and rear electric windows, trip computer, media centre including radio, Uconnect phone with voice command, USB connectivity and 6.5in colour touchscreen satellite navigation, Infinity premium audio system, Command-Trac shift-on-the-fly 4WD system, hill descent control and hill start assist.

Innovative

The Wrangler comes in three versions – Sport, Sahara and 70th Anniversary – with two and four-door options. It has removable doors, exposed hinges, a fold-down windscreen and innovative removable and convertible tops – great for living in the great outdoors, when it's dry!

The Jeep Freedom Top, a three-piece modular hardtop, is standard across the range and provides more options for open-air driving. I did try removing the hardtop, during one brief dry spell, and aside from being a little short to manhandle it, found it easy to remove and put back.

There's plenty of room for five adults, even in the four door, and adequate load space.

The driver can operate almost everything from the steering wheel including the radio, cruise control and hands-free phone. But one annoying thing about the phone is the 'voice'.

It really is hands-free, except for putting your thumb down on the button on the steering wheel to call or answer. You request your service by voice activation, lovely, and it even reads your phone book to find numbers. You say the name and hey presto it calls, except its reading ability is a little odd and you get some very amusing versions of your friend's names repeated back to you for confirmation!

With high ground clearance combined with short front and rear overhangs, the Jeep Wrangler has the ability to conquer challenging off-road obstacles, especially severe inclines. Off-road enthusiasts recognise the key numbers: an approach angle of 37.8 degrees, breakover angle of 25.5 degrees and departure angle of 29.7 degrees.

The engine for all Jeep Wrangler models is a 2.8-litre V-6 CRD producing 197bhp with a standard six-speed manual gearbox with stop-start technology or an available five-speed automatic transmission (460 Nm of torque).

Sport and Sahara models are equipped with the second-generation Command-Trac NV241 part-time, two-speed transfer case with a 2.72:1 low-range gear ratio.

A little history is worth mentioning here. The modern day Wrangler dates back to the first Willys MB Jeep first produced in 1941, making it the oldest off-road vehicle make, and the first civilian models were produced in 1945.

It inspired a number of other light utility vehicles, such as the Land Rover, which is the second oldest four-wheel drive brand. The original Jeep vehicle was the primary light four-wheel drive vehicle of the United States Army and Allies during World War Two, as well as the postwar period.

Prices start at £27,315 on-the-road for the two-door Wrangler 2.8 CRD Sahara, rising to £31,670 on-the-road for the four-door 2.8 CRD Overland Axle +.

The fastest model from SEAT set to make its mark

By David Banner

SEAT has revealed the quickest and most powerful series production car it has ever made: the SEAT Leon Cupra 280.

The Cupra 280 sits at the top of a five-strong family of brand new Cupra models which begins with the 265PS Leon SC Cupra and ends with the five-door Cupra 280 DSG.

Every Leon Cupra completes the benchmark 0-62 mph sprint in less than six seconds, while all manual versions return exceptional 44.1 mpg average fuel consumption.

But the Leon Cupra is a car whose development was led by the pursuit of dynamic excellence. To that end, every Leon Cupra comes as standard with a mechanical front axle differential lock, a progressive steering system which sharpens the turn-in for improved agility, DCC dynamic chassis control to alter the suspension settings between sportier or more comfort-oriented, and two-stage deactivation of the electronic stability control (ESC) – including the ability to turn it off entirely.

These are on top of fundamental changes compared to the previous Leon Cupra: the new Leon is built on an all-new chassis, with a wider front track and fully independent suspension front and rear.

"The new Leon Cupra is pure SEAT: emotion and performance, design and dynamics combine to deliver driving fun mile after mile. State-of-the-art technology is evident in its enormous precision, but also in its compelling efficiency," said Dr Matthias Rabe, vice-president of SEAT SA for research and development.

"The new Cupra is a sports car for every day; it feels just as much at home on the race track as it does on the long haul."

The Leon Cupra models embody the SEAT brand values in the best possible way. They combine exhilarating dynamics, state-of-the-art technology, stunning design, premium quality, outstanding efficiency and excellent everyday usability.

"With the new Leon Cupra, the SEAT brand is once more taking a major leap forward. The Cupra is a refined, high-performance car which combines its expressive dynamics with relaxed long-distance comfort and a compelling, high-quality feel," says Jürgen Stackmann, CEO of SEAT SA.

"Driving fun and great design comes with every Leon, but the new Cupra displays SEAT expertise in a whole new dimension. We are proud of this new brand icon and certain of its success."

Abundance

Cupra stands for power, performance and dynamics – and the new Leon Cupra and Cupra 280 have all those qualities in abundance. The Cupra 280, with optional DSG transmission, catapults from zero to 62mph in just 5.7 seconds, or 5.8 seconds with the six-speed manual gearbox; every Cupra model has a 155 mph limited top speed.

The 350Nm maximum torque of both versions spreads from just 1,750rpm all the way up to 5,300rpm, guaranteeing impressive pulling power and overtaking flexibility.

Against this, the new Leon Cupra is astonishingly efficient. The average fuel consumption for both power variants is just 44.1mpg with a manual gearbox, and 42.2mpg with DSG. This equates to CO2 figures of just 149g/km and 155g/km; by comparison the second generation Leon Cupra R with 265PS emitted 190g/km CO2.

And now SEAT is strengthening its design ties with a collaboration deal struck with Spanish multinational fashion retailer MANGO.

The Mii by MANGO is a special edition of SEAT's practical city car. The tie-up between the two Spanish companies will result in further activities which will combine SEAT's characteristic driving enjoyment through the latest technology with MANGO's innovative fashion design.

The new SEAT Mii by MANGO stands out thanks to its attractive interior and exterior design, featuring two exterior paint options: Nude, which is unique to Mii by MANGO, and Deep Black. The car is further distinguished by specific exterior side mouldings, dark grey 15in alloy wheels, heated electric door mirrors, and the 'Mii by MANGO' lettering on the left side of the rear hatch and the B-pillar.

The interior of the SEAT Mii by MANGO is highly practical, with a passenger compartment full of unique design elements, and additional equipment compared to the base model – particularly the distinctive grey accents, and the leather steering wheel and gear knob. The front and rear seats feature exclusive Alcantara upholstery with Nude trim and the lettering 'Mii by MANGO' stitched onto the headrests.

SEAT's new model includes specifically designed floor mats, door sills and key fob.

The Mii by MANGO will be available before the summer in three- and five-door body styles, in the UK becoming the range flagship model. The car features a comprehensive list of equipment including ESC, ABS, front and side airbags for driver and passenger and head-thorax airbags.

Mazda3 is looking set to cause stir in its sector

By David Banner

Mazda has seen the light – and it hopes car buyers in the fiercely competitive mid-range hatchback market will too.

If cars did benefit from time in the gym, it would be the new Mazda3. It's lost weight, and become shapelier, more agile and will have rivals looking on in envy. There are no less than 36 models in the line-up – which unusually includes a Fastback version with the looks of a sleek saloon – with a range of diesel and petrol engines and prices from £16,695 to £23,345.

While it bears the same name as the outgoing hatchback, the Mazda3 is new from the ground up, larger than its predecessor but engineered for fuel economy with features which have also paid dividends in terms of safety, roadholding and that illusive fun-to-drive factor.

For the thrifty motorist, there's the option of fuel consumption averaging up to 72.4mpg and tax-busting CO2 levels as low as 107mpg – the latter, by the way, coming from the same model which does the benchmark 0 to 62mph in a rapid 8.1 seconds.

The 3 is a big step forward from its predecessor and much of that is due to what Mazda calls its SKYACTIV technology, first revealed on the larger Mazda6 last year.

It's partly to do with the engine, which is a lot lighter and features a low-compression ratio combined with some clever injection and cylinder technology.

It also has a kinetic energy recovery system, helping to top up the battery and therefore saving horsepower which would otherwise be used driving the alternator.

But it also includes the extensive use of high and ultra-high tensile steel in the body and chassis, shedding the pounds but adding considerably to its strength.

Fun

Oh yes, and it's more fun, too. Through the twisty bits the 3 has the feel of a sport "warm" hatchback which adds seconds to the helping of driving pleasure and safety.

The car is a fraction lower, visually fitting in with its curving lines and sculpted surfaces while also helping to reduce drag.

In the four-door Fastback, the long boot has a useful 419 litres of space, slightly more than its hatchback stablemate which also has the practicality of split/fold rear seats.

The fascia is made of what looks like durable textured plastics, with an instrument binnacle with two information displays either side of a large rev counter. Inset is a big, clear digital speed readout.

One option is an aircraft-style head-up display, projecting your current speed on a small screen atop the dash and much closer to your eye line.

The display includes a visible warning for the new lane departure warning system, another option. A buzzer also sounds if you accidentally stray off line.

On the subject of technology, all new Mazda 3 models get a new system which automatically applies the brakes if you're in danger of one of those low-speed, around-town collisions.

The base models, in price terms, are those fitted with a 1.5-litre, 100PS petrol engine. It's pretty nippy (0 to 62mph in 10.8 seconds) and can average 55.4mpg, with CO2 emissions of 119g/km and the lowest insurance ratings, at 13E.

Petrol buyers might be impressed by the 2.0 litre, 120PS motor which knocks almost two seconds off the sprint time yet qualifies for identical economy and CO2 figures. There's also the option of an automatic transmission, which isn't available with the smaller engine.

Model for model, it costs around £300 more than the 1.5-litre and naturally the insurance companies will want a bit more of your cash.

There's also an uprated 165PS version.

The 3 is pretty well equipped as standard. Traction and stability control systems are fitted across the range.

The new car has qualified for a maximum five stars for safety in independent EuroNCAP tests.

in memoriam

BROWN

Her life was full of kindly deeds, a helping hand to all in need, a pleasant smile, a heart of gold, no finer Mother this would could hold.

Love from Daughter Julie and Charlie, Son John and Lisa, Grandchildren and Great-Grandchildren.

CONNELLY

Hazel

Formerly Hazel Joburns of Heath Hayes.

Passed away April 9, 2011.

Sadly missed.

Alas, that spring should vanish with the rose, that youths sweet scented manuscript should close, the nightingale that in the branches sang, ah, whence and whither flown again, who knows.

Remembered always.

Partner Frank.

acknowledgements

MORGAN

Frank

Wife Irene and the Family of the late Frank Morgan would like to thank everyone for their support and kindness at such a sad time.

A big thank you to Trevor Green for the lovely Service. Donations of £100 will be sent to St Giles Hospice.

Thank you all.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:
1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with its Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree. Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

Stear-ing towards new deal at Wolves

BOSS Kenny Jackett has confirmed Wolves defender Richard Stearman is to be offered a new deal.

The head coach has now followed a positive hint that Dave Edwards would be offered fresh terms by declaring Stearman – the other high profile player out of contract – will too.

Jackett said any contract talks to senior players are on hold until Wolves know which division they will be in.

But after an excellent season, where the 26-year-old has formed part of the second tightest defence in all four divisions behind Chelsea, Jackett says the former Leicester stopper will be offered a new deal.

“Rest assured we rate Richard Stearman and we see him as having a future at the club,” said the boss.

“We’re very pleased with him and I’m sure talks will go well.

“It’s not something we’re going to talk about right now in terms of contracts, but I don’t select someone that many times and work as hard as we have defensively to get such a good goals-against record to then release him.

“He’s enjoyed a really good partnership with Danny Batth and I see him as having a good future here.”

Martial arts club have golden day

A MARTIAL arts club has won its first golds at the English Tae Kwon Do Championships. The 17-strong Newport and Pen-ridge Tae Kwon Do club grabbed the gold at Worcester University Arena.

Darren Ross earned gold in the men’s patterns division. Tag team sparring division boys’ heavyweight Giles Wright and girls’ middleweight Charlotte Harrison earning gold. Giles also became individual boys’ heavyweight English Spar-ring Champion.

Boys’ lightweight members George Foster and Rhys Shaw earned gold with their sparring matches in the tag-team events, with Harvey Barber and Jordan Ryan bagging bronze.

Club nets funding for new equipment

PLAYERS and officials at Cheslyn Hay Tennis Club are celebrating after being awarded a Sport England grant.

Since being formed in 2012 the club now has six weekly sessions with more than 80 regular playing members from under-8s to adults. The club also fields seven teams from Under-12s to men’s teams in various leagues.

The club’s impact on local tennis has been recognised by Sport England and Lawn Tennis Association after being allotted funds to grow the game further.

This has allowed the club to purchase new tennis windbreaks, nets and tennis posts to improve the community’s experience of tennis and become a leading tennis facility in Staffordshire.

Tennis

To celebrate, the club is holding a free tennis fortnight from April 7 to 21 where any juniors and senior who would like to start taking part in sessions during these times can play for free during the two weeks.

James Perrin, club coach at Cheslyn Hay said: “This is very exciting news indeed for the club.

“It represents a major step forward, which we have been working towards for the last two years.

“The club, which provides affordable tennis to both juniors and adults, is always keen to accept new members.

“We believe that our club offers a welcoming and friendly environment for people to enjoy the game.”

Sport England’s chairman Nick Bitel said: “Two years on from the Olympics, this National Lottery investment is helping us deliver a lasting sporting legacy in Staf-fordshire.

“With investment now on offer from our Peoples Places Play Initiative until 2017, we look forward to supporting many more sports clubs like Cheslyn Hay Tennis Club in the Staffordshire area who play such a vital role in grassroots sport.”

Form book shows as leaders take points

Burntwood 3 Veseyans 36
BURNWOOD’S final home league match of the season went the way of the form book with top of the table Veseyans taking all five points.

The visitors dominated the set pieces as shown by four of their five tries coming from line out catch and drives orchestrated by No 8 Zak Feaunati, the ex-Bath and Samoan international.

The hosts enjoyed periods of promising play, particularly in the second half but their only points of the afternoon were the first of the match, a penalty goal by Will Peach two minutes in.

Veseyans showed their power in the set piece by disrupting a Burntwood scrum two minutes later to earn a penalty which was converted to level the scores. Two more penalty attempts followed in the next 10 minutes but both were off target so the visitors chose to kick for the corners instead.

Clubhouse

This tactic paid off after 16 minutes with the first of their catch and drives for a try in the clubhouse corner, which was converted. Another penalty kick, this time to the bottom corner, produced the second drive over from a line out, again converted, for a 17-3 lead.

Four minutes later Veseyans were at it again in the clubhouse corner.

Burntwood’s chances of keeping them out were reduced when Josh Bayliss was sin-binned. The second drive was finished off by Feaunati and the conversion took the half-time score to 24-3. Early in the second period Burntwood survived another close range maul and began to build momentum in their own attacking play.

They won a scrum against the put in and then a penalty award was kicked to the bottom corner. The ball wasn’t taken cleanly but they were awarded another penalty.

They decided to tap and go which produced another penalty but the award was reversed following a flurry of punches which saw Lloyd Shelley and Feaunati spend 10 minutes on the touchline.

Veseyans scored their bonus point try, converted, on the hour mark.

The final score came from an unstoppable catch and drive from 20 metres out with 10 minutes left.

Burntwood play their final league game of the season on Saturday at Wednesbury. The clubs’ second strings meet at The Sports-way for a merit table game.

On Sunday Burntwood hosts the county u-15s Cup Finals Day with plate, shield and cup finals kicking off respectively at 11am, 1pm and 3pm. Admission is free.

Burntwood’s Ben Holt, with the ball, takes on the Veseyan defenders

Lockmen start well but then crumble

Willenhall 1 Bilston 8
THE Lockmen will not be able to believe this score as they completely dominated the first half yet still crashed to a humiliating defeat.

The first 25 minutes was all Willenhall and Craig Sudlow, Jake Morgan and Mike Fostereach could have opened the scoring twice.

However, the Steelmen netted with their first attack when Danny Mason played a ball in and Michael Nelson scored after the first shot had been saved. A minute later and ex-Reds Sean Pugh hit the first of his four goal haul by chasing onto a through ball and firing home.

Another former Red, James McKenzie, scored straight after the break before Mattie Dorgan got one back. The Lockmen’s defensive will crashed inside five minutes as Nelson charged through unopposed and netted on 56 minutes.

Three minutes later Pugh had his second.

Then he curled an effort over keeper James Wilson for the sixth. Pugh then chased a lost cause after 87 minutes and hooked the ball back across goal for the seventh before another simple ball saw him stride easily onto the ball before firing home.

Edwards in tribute to Jackett

DAVE Edwards has paid tribute to Wolves boss Kenny Jackett for his Molineux rebuild.

Edwards is one of a few survivors of the Championship title win and the double relegation, but he has been hugely impressed at the work Jackett has done in taking the club to the brink of promotion.

Jackett’s side went effectively within three points of an automatic return to the Championship on Tuesday night when Sheffield United beat visitors Rotherham.

And midfielder Edwards believes Jackett’s signings have made all the difference after declaring Scott Golbourne is the best left-back in League One and Michael Jacobs is a £1m player.

Tribute to 96 fans who died at ground

ON Saturday Hednesford Town, along with all other football league and football conference sides, will kick-off seven minutes later than usual to pay respect to the 96 Liverpool supporters who lost their lives at Hillsborough 25 years ago.

The events of April 15, 1989 will live long in the memory of not only those who were directly affected by what happened in that FA Cup Semi-Final, but also the whole of the footballing family.

Saturday will see the home game against Guiseley kick-off at 3.07pm rather than the usual 3pm. At 3.06 there will be a minute's silence at all grounds to remember all of those who lost their lives.

Supporters of both Hednesford and Guiseley are being asked to bring along scarves to hold them aloft as the two teams enter the pitch. And for this match only they will be playing the Liverpool theme tune 'You'll Never Walk Alone' as the two teams come out.

In the small seated stand behind the Hednesford End of the ground, they will be sectioning off 96 seats in order to represent those football supporters who were lost on that day.

Khalsa in comfortable victory

Bilston Town 0 Sporting Khalsa 4

KHALSA short trip to Bilston Town ended with a comfortable victory with Liam Hughes scoring a brace in each half.

Khalsa opened brightly and Liam Hughes scored within two minutes from a free-kick.

Three minutes later Khalsa went two goals up when Hughes calmly slotted the ball past the keeper.

As, the game progressed Bilston started to get more into it.Five minutes into the second half, Hughes scored his hat-trick from a Dan Blackwell cross and 10 minutes later a rebound fell to him and he slotted the ball home.

Piper call the tune as they lift cup

Cannock Chase Football League Division Four Cup Final

AFC Piper lifted the John Wells cup after beating Soldiers 2-1. Two first half goals through Jamie Morris and Tom Southall put the Piper in control at the break.

Soldiers upped their game in the second half and pulled a goal back. As the clock ticked down Piper held on to win and received the cup off John Wells.

Division Three Cup Final

King George V Casuals from Walsall completed their first season in the Cannock Chase League by lifting the third division cup with a 2-1 win over AFC Winding Wheel. Trailing to a first half goal, Casuals equalised in the first minute of the second half through Craig Smith.

Football

With chances by both teams it took until the last minute for the winning goal to arrive. From a free kick centre half Scott Harvey scored his second goal of the season at the back post to the delight of the Walsall supporters. Rushall Olympic head steward Paul Sheward presented the trophy .

Cannock Chase Cup semi-final

Premier League Ridware Oak eased into the final by knocking out second division Olly's 4-1. Jamie Clark, Steve Allen, Dicky Jones and Morgan Hurley all scored to put them into the final at Stafford Town.

Ron Terry Cup Semi-final

A double from Dan Scragg put Talbot into their second final of the season by beating Bridgtown Social 2-1.

Premier League Cup Semi-final

The Littleton fought back from two goals down to knock out Brereton Social with three second half goals by Matty Allport, Richard Tapper and Scott Wallis. They play Hawkins Sports in the final.

Division One Cup Semi-final

Carl Morris went from villain to hero for Poets Corner as his own goal put CK77 one up but he then scored twice at the right end to put Poets Corner into the final against Nelson Inn played at Walsall Wood.

On Friday Cannock Rangers take on Rugeley Rangers in the Aero Taxis Cup at Brereton Social. Kick-off 7. 30pm. On Sunday it's the Division Two Cup Final at Rushall Olympic between Talbot FC and Victoria FC. Kick-off 2pm.

Hayes in a battle but only get draw

Heath Hayes 1 Stourport Swifts 1

HAYES turned in a much improved performance and deserved maximum points as they strive to avoid the drop from the Midland Alliance.

Strengthened by the return of key players, they were more than a match for a Swifts side unbeaten in their last six games.

The home side got the start they had hoped for and went ahead after five minutes.

Adam Robinsons in-swinging corner was flicked on by Chris Geldart and Adam Green fired an unstoppable shot into the net.

This inspired Hayes who started to tackle and pass the ball well something which had been badly missing from recent performances.

Green went close to twice increasing the lead and Dave Waple beat keeper Sam Hawker to a cross but his header was somehow cleared off the line by Jamie Willets with the home side claiming the ball had crossed the line.

Swifts equalised on the hour.

Robinsons' clearance struck Tom Baggott and the rebound fell to Jordan Jones whose scuffed shot went in at the near post.

Lawley's hat-trick for victory

Coventry Sphinx 1 AFC Wulfrunians 3

AN excellent hat-trick from Brad Lawley ensured AFC Wulfrunians came away with all three points from a gritty encounter away at Coventry Sphinx. He fired two in the first half, before rounding off the win with a third shortly after Matty Fowler had pulled one back for the hosts.

Lawley put the visitors ahead after just eight minutes, before quick thinking by Scott Stevenson led to Wulfs' lead being doubled. He caught the defence off-guard with a quick free kick and Lawley fired it low, past O'Neil.

Thirteen minutes after Sphinx's goal Lawley completed his hat-trick.

Scholars win leaves rivals bottom of pile

Chasetown 1 Kidsgrove 0

CHASETOWN ended their three-match winless run and condemned Kidsgrove to the bottom of the league with a late goal to demoralise their Staffordshire neighbours.

The visitors saw Tesfa Robinson clear an effort off the line while Wayne Cordon and Shane Reaney both struck the frame of the goal.

It left leave them feeling that things were not going their way in their fight to avoid relegation, especially as they were leapfrogged by Bedworth's 2-0 win.

That said, the Scholars had more than enough chances to put the game to bed, with visiting keeper Danny Read head and shoulders above the rest as a choice for man of the match.

After just 10 minutes, Read made a candidate for save of the season as it seemed inevitable that Danny Bragoli's close-range downward header would find the net.

Appeals

But, Read greeted by chants of "one Gordon Banks", kept out the effort with the assistant referee shaking his head to appeals that the ball had crossed the line.

Jack Lees and Luke Chapman both tested Read with low shots in a fairly disappointing first half.

The visitors started the second half by twice rattling the frame of Danny Watson's goal until Chasetown gradually took control and took the lead 14 minutes from time - with a superb strike following a scruffy build-up. Lee Butler's near-post corner just reached Nick Wellecome who, himself, scuffed his pass into the path of Lees.

The ball ricocheted from Lees into the path of Joe Halsall who screamed an effort through a crowded goalmouth into the back of the net - his first Chasetown goal at the 27th time of asking.

Halsall almost made it two, forcing Read to dive full-length to his left to keep out the goalbound effort.

Chasetown continued to warm the gloves of the Kidsgrove No.1 as Wellecome brought a decent diving save out of Read and then he denied Bragoli for the second time in the game.

With the play-offs long out of reach, Chasetown remained in 11th place in Evo-Stik Division One South and eight points adrift of sixth - the highest Chasetown can finish this season with four league games remaining.

There is one last chance of glory from the season as they have reached the final of the Walsall Senior Cup against either Walsall Wood or Rushall Olympic, who meet in their semi-final tonight (Thursday).

Khalsa shoot into cup semis

JW Hunt Cup – Qtr Finals
Heath Hayes 0
Sporting Khalsa 4

KHALSA managed four goals and another clean sheet against Heath Hayes from the Midland Alliance to progress into the semis of the JW Hunt Cup.

Khalsa were in full control from the kick-off and should have had a penalty after 10 minutes when Sam Pearson was fouled in the box by the home side keeper. Khalsa eventually took the lead after 14 minutes through Lee Boswell's long free-kick. The Heath Hayes keeper made two excellent saves from Sam Pearson and Liam Hughes to deny Khalsa.

In the second half Pearson went clean on goal and rounded the keeper but his shot was cleared off the line.

John Cordy eventually increased Khalsa's lead after 55 minutes when he beat a couple of Heath Hayes defenders and smashed the ball home from 20 yards out. Five minutes later Liam Hughes raced into the box and his shot went under the advancing Heath Hayes keeper to put Khalsa three goals up.

Liam Hughes scored his second in the 65th minute and Khalsa's fourth goal. In the 75th minute Sam Pearson rounds the keeper again but his shot hit the post.

Swimmers are just champion

A CANNOCK swimming club made a major splash when they claimed a hat-trick of team titles at the county championships.

Chase Club won three of the four major trophies at the Staffordshire County ASA Championships in Stafford.

The junior boys, junior girls and senior boys claimed their age-group titles with the senior girls taking second place at the event, which took place over two weekends.

Head coach Paul Grainger said: "This was a fantastic team performance. It was hard to see how we could have improved on last year's success but we did, and in style."

They achieved 34 individual championship medals and 190 medals across all events, with two championship clean sweeps of gold, silver and bronze medals.

Kickbox black belt success is a family affair

Son Callum and mother Caron Jones

FAMILY fights are a different kind of affair for one mother and son who have both just earned black belts in kickboxing.

Huntington Kickboxing Club (HKB) members Caron and Callum Jones, have been celebrating after they both attaining the coveted belt in the martial art.

The mother and son both endured a gruelling six-hour examination to achieve their goal after years of training at the club and honing their skills in fighting art.

The black belt award has long been the target for many martial arts enthusiasts, but with up to nine other gradings required before you are eligible, it is often seen as too daunting.

Martial Arts

HKB instructor Shaun Preece said: "We have had a number of people achieve the black belt grading over the years, though this is the first time we have had a mother and son achieve the belt at the same time."

The Jones family joined the club almost eight years ago as they saw it an exciting way to get fit, however, after a short while they soon got the taste for the sport and started grading to achieve their belts. Another club member, Owen Addison, also achieved the black belt during the same grading.

Addison, a regular competing fighter at the club, decided to undertake the grading to help progress his chances in the ring, as the grading will assist in matches more suited to his ability.

The club are always looking for new recruits and welcomes people of all ages whether looking to grade, compete or just keep fit.

PITMEN'S CRANE THE MAIN MAN

Gainsborough Trinity 1 Hednesford Town 2

KEEPER Dan Crane has made some big saves for the Pitmen, but the one to deny Cairan Toner in the 94th minute will go down as one of best.

With the final kick of the match Crane, who had just seen the ball hooked over his head and onto the post, had to show unbelievable reactions as it fell to Toner.

His shot deflected off the desperate lunge of Dave Macpherson and looked to be flying into the net only for Crane throw himself across goal to block the ball on the line.

It was hacked clear and the referee blew his whistle, leaving the travelling band of Hednesford Town supporters stunned with relief and delighted with another win which now leaves their team five points inside the play-off places with four games to go.

Confident

Gainsborough had recently beaten the Pitmen 3-1 at home, so Rob Smith's side went into the game knowing they would face a test but a positive start allayed those fears.

Charlie Anagho-Ntmark, more confident and using the ball better since his elevation into the starting line-up in recent weeks, set up the irrepressible Marvin Johnson with a perfectly weighted through ball for the winger to toe poke home on 11 minutes.

The Pitmen were looking comfortable but just four minutes later the scores were level when Ben Bailey misjudged the bounce and pace of a hopeful through ball and let Tom Davies skip through on goal and finish past a stranded Crane.

Trinity were a threat going forward but with Johnson continuing his barnstorming start to a Hednesford career, the away side always looked a good bet for a second goal.

A header over the top of the defence by Macpherson set up Danny Glover to lob Phil Barnes but the keeper got the slightest touch to the ball at full stretch and diverted it onto the upright.

Crane had to be on guard to beat away a shot by Toner before Anagho-Ntmark forced the same reaction by Barnes just before half time.

Marvin Robinson replaced Anagho-Ntmark at half time. Johnson skipped wonderfully past three Gainsborough defenders and his shot across goal palmed away. Then he dug a superb cross out from the by-line to set up Macpherson but Barnes was equal to it.

With 18 minutes Wayne Riley pounced on a loose ball to nod the Pitmen into the lead to leave Crane to his heroics.

Danny Glover wins this header under pressure during the Pitmen's victory away to Gainsborough Trinity

Duo join the ranks for Harris

CHASETOWN have made two more signings as they continue to build for next season.

Striker Jack Lees from Stafford Rangers and midfielder Jack Langston from Gresley Rovers have joined ex-Stafford and Hednesford defender Jermaine Johnson as recent recruits.

Lees made his debut in a 2-2 draw against Carlton, Langston – the son of former Scholars midfielder Dave – is recovering from an ankle injury.

Boss Craig Harris said: "Jack Lees brings pace to the forward line – he gets on the shoulder of the last defender and can get away from him."

"Jack Langston is back in full training but I haven't been able to fit him in yet. He's a hardworking midfielder, he's a good passer and he can weigh in with a goal."

"Both have been signed with a view to next season – we need lads to come in to keep building the squad."

Harris challenged his Walsall Senior Cup finalists: "We want to finish sixth and win a trophy and that would complete a good season for us."

No let up vow from Jacobs

MICHAEL JACOBS has vowed Wolves won't allow complacency to stop them taking the final steps to promotion.

Whatever happens, Jacobs stressed Wolves won't let up in their quest.

"It won't come into this dressing room," he insisted. "We set our own standards."
